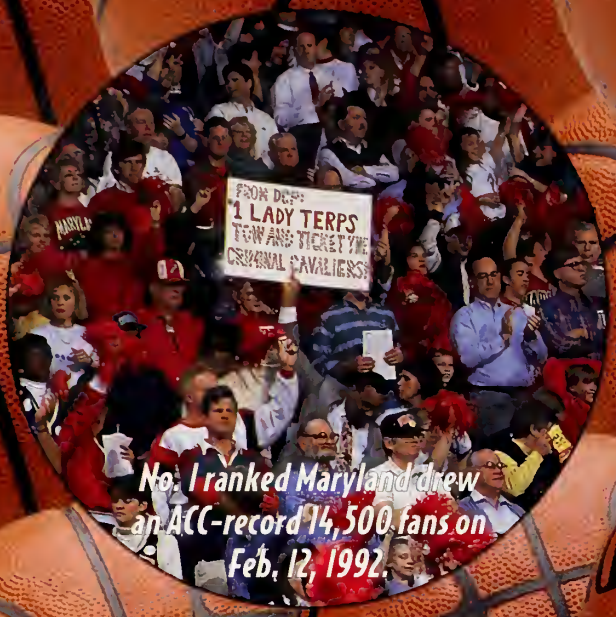
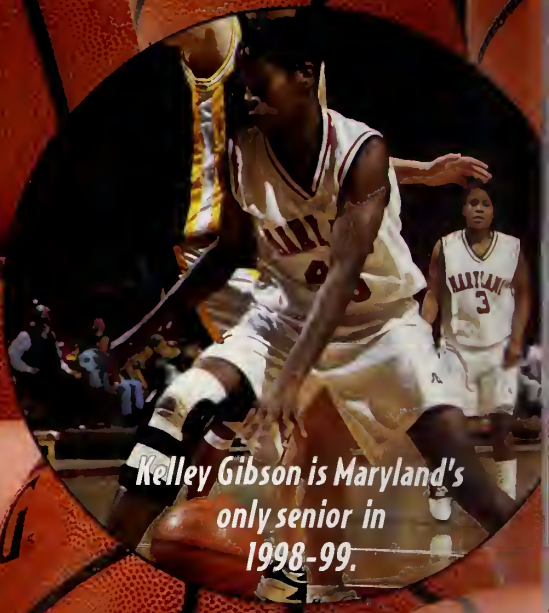
Maryland Women's Basketball: A Program of Distinction



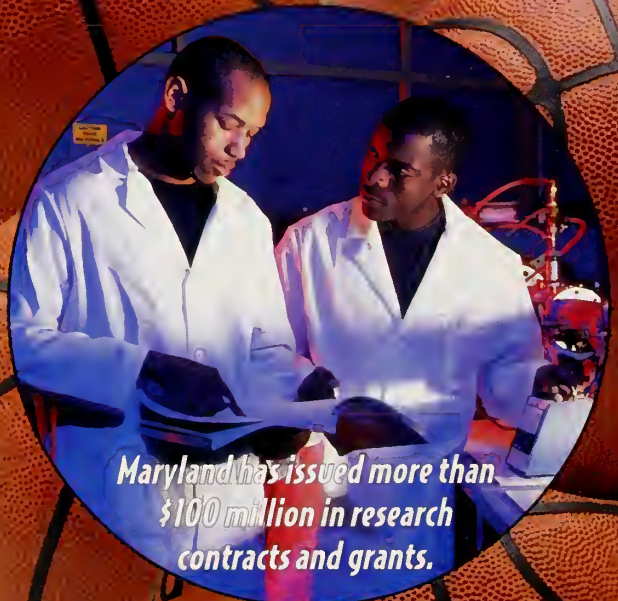
No. 1 ranked Maryland drew an ACC-record 14,500 fans on Feb. 12, 1992.



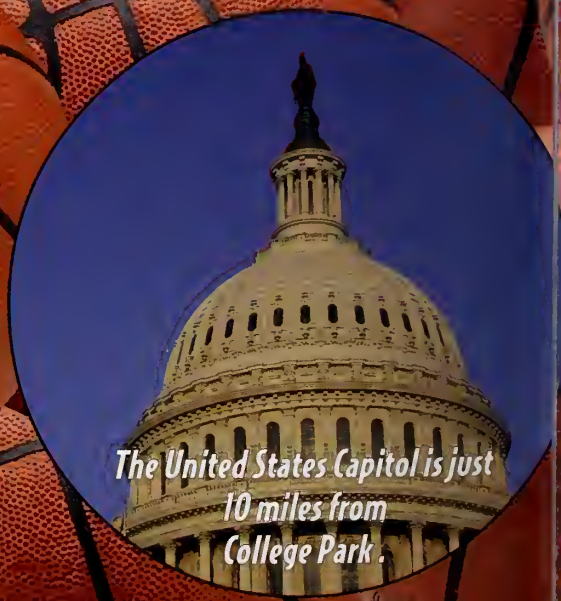
Kelley Gibson is Maryland's only senior in 1998-99.

Maryland has won an unprecedented eight ACC championships.

The legend of Testudo began at Maryland in 1933.



Maryland has issued more than $100 million in research contracts and grants.



The United States Capitol is just 10 miles from College Park.

ELECTRIC YOUTH

e•lec•tric, adj. 1. Pertaining to, derived from, produced by, or involving electricity; an electric current; an electric shock. 2. Producing, transmitting, or operated by electric currents; an electric bell. 3. Electrifying; thrilling; exciting; stirring.

youth, n. 1. The condition of being young. 2. The vitality characteristic of the young. 3. The time of being young; early life. 4. The first or early period of anything. 5. Young persons collectively. 6. A young person.

Defined by Random House, "Electric Youth" might conjure literal images of young women producing or transmitting electric current. Perhaps most likely, young ladies found to be electrifying, thrilling, exciting or stirring.

Non-literary types might recall the hit pop song "Electric Youth" by female vocalist Debbie Gibson.

Maryland women's basketball coach Chris Weller prefers the allusion to her '98-99 Terrapins.

Maryland places 19th in Sears Directors' Cup

In final standings released by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the Terrapins' program was ranked tied for 19th out of 306 Division I schools last year. It is the highest finish for the Terps since the rankings began five years ago, and Maryland's 38-position jump from the No. 57 spot in 1994-95 is the greatest in that time by a school not previously ranked in the Top 25.

Media Credentials

Admittance to press row, the media room, the interview area and photo areas at Cole Field House is limited to working media. Requests for working media credentials should be sent to Kevin Messenger preferably three days prior to each home game. A pass list will be left at the back door of Cole Field House on a game-by-game basis. From the outside, the back of Cole Field House is on the east side of the building, directly opposite Byrd Stadium on Stadium Drive.

Media Parking

Parking spaces for visiting media are plentiful. Parking is available in Lot Z which is directly adjacent to Cole Field House on the north. No permit is required.

Media Services

Updated team information will be available in the media room prior to tip-off. Half-time statistics are distributed in the media room and along press row. Final statistics and complete game books will be distributed in the media room as quickly as they become available. Telephone lines are available in the media room for sending stories. Members of the media may request to be included on a post-game fax list by speaking with Kevin Messenger prior to the game.

Game Notes and Programs

Game notes and programs are available upon arrival in the media room.

Post-Game Interviews

A formal post-game interview for both teams is held in the media room. After a 10 minute cooling period, the visiting coach and requested players are made available, followed by Chris Weller and requested Maryland players. Locker rooms are closed to the media.

Daily Interviews

Media wishing to interview Maryland coaches or players are asked to contact Kevin Messenger at 301-314-7066. Individual interviews are not granted on game days.

Weekly Teleconference

The nine ACC women's basketball coaches are featured on a weekly teleconference each Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. beginning January 5 and concluding February 23, 1999. Each coach will be allotted approximately eight minutes during the session to answer questions from the media. The media telephone number is 913-981-5509. The order of coaches is as follows:

11:00 am Charlene Curtis, Wake Forest
11:08 am Debbie Ryan, Virginia
11:16 am Kay Yow, NC State
11:24 am Sylvia Hatchell, North Carolina
11:32 am Chris Weller, Maryland
11:40 am Angus Berenato, Georgia Tech
11:48 am Sue Semrau, Florida State
11:56 am Gail Goestenkors, Duke
12:04 pm Jim Davis, Clemson

Radio

Broadcast requests must be made in writing at least one week prior to the contest. Visiting radio stations are accorded two courtesy lines at courtside. Telephone lines may only be accessed through credit cards or collect billing back to the station. Stations needing additional phone lines must contact Gary Parker at the Maryland Athletics Facility Office (301) 314-7127.

ACC Faxback

Up-to-date information on ACC teams is available 24 hours a day on the ACC Faxback system. Conference basketball standings are updated each weekday afternoon during the season. Each school also updates its respective release by 5 p.m., on days prior to games. To utilize the system, dial the Faxback phone number from your fax phone. Follow the step-by-step instructions to retrieve information. Start your fax at the tone and the requested information will begin transmitting to you machine. The ACC Faxback number is provided only to certified media members by calling the ACC media relations office or Kevin Messenger in the Maryland media relations office.

ELECTRONIC MEDIA COVERAGE

Terps on the Tube

An all-time high 52 television appearances, along with a new tournament format, highlight the 1998-99 Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball schedule. The schedule includes 18 TV games on the league's regional sports network, six games on ESPN/ESPN2, four on FOX Sports South and two on Lifetime Network.

In the last nine years, the conference has advanced from a four-game regional package that featured only one live telecast and three tape-delay to this season's 18-game package with live telecasts for all games by Home Team Sports, FOX Sports South and the Sunshine Network. The regular season package includes a Sunday game at 12:30 p.m. and a Monday game at 7 p.m. The 14 regular season telecasts climax with LIVE coverage of the 22nd annual ACC Women's Basketball Tournament which will implement a new format and will feature expanded television coverage. For the first time the tournament, which begins Friday, Feb. 24 and ends Monday, March 1, will televise four of the eight games. This year marks the first time that a quarterfinal game will be aired, along with both semifinals and the championship game.

Maryland appears three times on the regional network this season, and another on FOX Sports South. During the season's final month, the Terrapins appear in four consecutive weeks.

Listening to the Terps

Catch Maryland women's basketball on WMUC radio all season long as the station returns for another year of action. WMUC covers 13 home Maryland women's basketball games beginning with the Terps' non-conference matchup with Western Michigan on Dec. 2.

Broadcasts can be heard on both the FM dial at 88.1 and the AM dial at 650.

The ACC schedule opens on Dec. 13 with an afternoon game against Wake Forest. WMUC covers both of Maryland's games in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 28 and 29.

WMUC could also add road games, schedule permitting, and may cover Maryland at the ACC Tournament in Charlotte, N.C., from Feb. 26-March 1.

WMUC's broadcasts can be heard live over the Internet at the station's website at www.wmuc.umd.edu.

Play-by-play announcers for women's basketball are yet to be determined, but the station producer will be WMUC sports director Nick Ammazzallorso.

1998-99 Season Preview

Senior Kelley Gibson leads the Terps into action in 1998-99.

SEASON OUTLOOK

e•lec•tric, adj. 1. Pertaining to, derived from, produced by, or involving electricity; an electric current; an electric shock. 2. Producing, transmitting, or operated by electric currents; an electric bell. 3. Electrifying; thrilling; exciting; stirring.

youth, n. 1. The condition of being young. 2. The vitality characteristic of the young. 3. The time of being young; early life. 4. The first or early period of anything. 5. Young persons collectively. 6. A young person.

Defined by Random House, "Electric Youth" might conjure literal images of young women producing or transmitting electric current. Perhaps most likely, young ladies found to be electrifying, thrilling, exciting or stirring.

Non-literary types might recall the hit pop song "Electric Youth" by female vocalist Debbie Gibson.

Still others — let's take Maryland women's basketball coach Chris Weller for instance — might prefer the allusion to her '98-99 Terrapins.

The explanation is simple: a mix of three regular and part-time returning starters, with a pair of reserves and seven newcomers. Eight freshmen and sophomores among a roster of 12, and just seven varsity letters between the four upperclassmen. Just one senior. That's the "youth."

Tiffany Brown is the Terps' long-range bomber.

"Electric" is the return of dynamic senior Kelley Gibson, no relation of course to the aforementioned singer, and a cast of athletic newcomers which Weller expects to provide a deeper, more up-tempo and more exciting brand of college women's basketball.

Electric Youth will be put to work early in five non-conference games before renewing opening ACC court wars at Clemson on Dec. 5, and battling powerful Penn State on the road on Dec. 10.

The Terps host ACC foe Wake Forest three nights later before hosting a week-long holiday schedule with Rutgers on Dec. 22 and the annual Terrapin Classic on Dec. 28-29. Fourteen ACC contests and a non-league bout with Morgan State precede the annual Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in Charlotte, N.C., Feb. 25-28.

"A lot of freshmen are going to have to play a lot of minutes," says Weller, who returns for her 24th season at the helm of the Maryland program. "While that may appear scary to some, our young team will play with enthusiasm and confidence. We should exhibit greater depth than last season, we'll be bigger, and possibly quicker inside."

She added, "We're going to be a strong rebounding team. We'll get the ball out quicker. I expect us to run a little more up-tempo style of play."

Gibson — Kelley, not Debbie — keys the Terps' return to the ACC's upper division. She is Maryland's lone senior, and for the first time in her career, embarks on a campaign in which she is expected to be the leader, scorer, star and "quarterback." She is a tremendously skilled player with an explosive first step, and a player who readily accepts the Terps' "go-to" role for the first time in her career.

"For Kelley, this is the first time she's been able to put together back-to-back seasons since she's been here," adds Weller. "She had a strong junior year, and she's excited now to put two strong seasons together and become the leader of our program."

As either a guard or forward, Gibson is a bonafide scorer despite averaging just 6.8 points a year ago behind veteran leadership. Last season's average was, in fact, the lowest of her career while she asserted herself in an all-around capacity for the Terps — boasting a rare distinction while leading Maryland in assists and blocks. She played more minutes and collected more steals than any Terp other than current WNBA rookie Sonia Chase, and was second to Tiffany Brown in 3-point shooting. Prior to 1997-98, Gibson averaged 10.9 points in parts of three seasons. Her senior campaign is clearly Kelley Gibson's chance to excel, and electrify, Terrapin opponents.

Joining Gibson as returning starters this season are juniors Brown and Branka Bogunovic: Brown, the quick and daring perimeter specialist; Bogunovic, the 6-foot, 8-inch center whose 56.8 percent shooting in ACC games showed marked improvement for the Yugoslavian import.

Kelley Gibson is the Terps' "quarterback."

Through just two seasons, Brown has already set Maryland marks for 3-point baskets and attempts. Maryland coaches seek more penetration from the 5-6 spark plug whose quickness can be put to use both in breaking apart a half-court defense, or in leading an improved Terp transition game. Her 7.8 points per game last season are tops among Maryland returners, and her 3.0 assists trailed only Gibson's 4.3.

Like Brown, Bogunovic started 14 of 16 ACC games. She played just eight games overall as a freshman, but by the end of her sophomore season she was well established among ACC centers. She averaged 9.1 points and 4.6 rebounds in those ACC games last year, and increased her playing time to 19.8 minutes. In terms of size, she has no equal in what is arguably the nation's top collegiate conference for women's basketball. Her skills have improved dramatically, and Weller expects only more of the same while watching Bogunovic become one of the ACC's elite centers over the next two seasons.

Weller expects this trio to emerge as leaders for the first time in their Maryland careers, and help raise a standard while returning the Terps to their 16th national tournament in the last 22 seasons. Weller also expects a deeper bench than a year ago, due to the influx of six incoming freshmen and junior college transfer Cara Ferris.

"Ferris and the Freshmen" bring to Maryland a bigger, more agile collection of athletes, to join junior returners Antonieta Gabriel and Michelle Miller.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Guards

At guard for the Terps, Weller returns two starters who expect to split time alongside two of Maryland's most prized recruits. Brown and Gibson

| No. | Player | Hgt. | Year |
|---|---|---|---|
| 3 | Tiffany Brown | 5-6 | Jr.-2V |
| 12 | Michelle Miller | 5-9 | Jr.-1V |
| 20 | Marché Strickland | 5-9 | Fr.-HS |
| 24 | Marija Ilic | 5-11 | Fr.-HS |
| 25 | Ginji Perry | 5-11 | Fr.-HS |
| 45 | Kelley Gibson | 5-11 | Sr.-3V |

anchor the point and off-guard positions, respectively, but should share considerable time with standout freshmen Ginji Perry and Marché Strickland.

Perry was the '96-97 player of the year in the Washington, D.C. metro area as selected by the Washington Post. Strickland was the Massachusetts state scoring champion. Together they bring to Maryland a young guard tandem that will contribute immediately.

Michelle Miller

"Ginji is an aggressive player who plays with emotion. She has a lot of savvy and can create. She is an all-around player very much like Kelley," said Weller. "She is solid. She'll play a lot of minutes."

Of Strickland, Weller added, "She is a great shooter. She'll be one of our main threats. She is a student of the game and very serious. She's pretty complete offensively and a very smart player."

At the point, Brown is the incumbent starter, hoping this season to utilize her quickness more in penetration and transition, and open the floor for the Terps. She'll be aided in bringing the ball up the floor by Gibson, Perry and Yugoslavian recruit Marija Ilic. Ilic is a big guard at nearly six-foot who possesses a nice shot and just needs to adapt to the quicker, American style of play.

For the most part, Gibson and Perry might mirror one another, and both can play the "1", "2", or "3" positions. Strickland will see considerable time on the perimeter and Miller adds depth and defense to the outside game.

Forwards

Both inside and on the wing, Maryland's forward position promises to be as deep as it has been in years. Deeper, bigger and perhaps more athletic.

Look for Ferris, out of Pensacola Junior College, to play frequently on the wing, with spot play from Gibson, Perry and Ijeoma Agba. Ferris is a "big" wing at 6-1, and is both a good scorer and passer.

"Cara is very steady and very solid," says Weller. "She has a level of maturity that will aid this team's development. She brings a sense of stability to a large group of new players."

| No. | Player | Hgt. | Year |
|---|---|---|---|
| 30 | Ijeoma Agba | 6-0 | Fr.-HS |
| 32 | Antonieta Gabriel | 6-0 | Jr.-1V |
| 33 | Cara Ferris | 6-1 | Jr.-JC |
| 34 | Deedee Warley | 6-2 | Fr.-HS |
| 42 | Rosita Melbourne | 6-3 | Fr.-HS |
| 45 | Kelley Gibson | 5-11 | Sr.-3V |

Agba, who goes by just Ije (EE-jay), is a great athlete and hard worker who can play either forward position – though most often will score from under the bucket. At 6-0, she plays big and rebounds well. She is one of a trio of freshmen whom Weller expects will dramatically impact the Terps' rebounding efforts this season.

Antonieta Gabriel

The trio also includes Rosita Melbourne and Deedee Warley, and joins Gabriel as Terp power forwards. Gabriel was a quiet player in her freshman season, but one who played 17 games, rebounds well and should blend nicely with the new players inside.

Warley can play outside as well as inside. "Deedee has great offensive skills," comments Weller. "She can step out and shoot the '3', she 'finishes' well and offensively, is very strong."

And finally, Weller adds, "If you talk rebounding, you talk Rosita. Rosita Melbourne might be the quickest post player we've ever had in our program."

Melbourne caps the inside freshmen trio. She needs to refine specific skills and develop to the college game the same as Agba and Warley, but Melbourne is a quick jumper and shot blocker who is exceptionally athletic. At 6-3, she will play either a forward or post position, and could even defend on the perimeter.

Centers

The obvious center of attention is Bogunovic. While minutes and conditioning have improved steadily the last two seasons, she has developed into a more aggressive, attacking center who has earned a niche in the ACC. The Yugoslavian import is the tallest player in the history of Maryland women's

| No. | Player | Hgt. | Year |
|---|---|---|---|
| 42 | Rosita Melbourne | 6-3 | Fr.-HS |
| 55 | Branka Bogunovic | 6-8 | Jr.-2V |

basketball, and always has possessed a good shooting touch. She shot 56.8 percent from the floor in 16 ACC games last season, and saw her rebounding average improve to 4.6 boards during those games.

Buoyed by the additional rebounding support, and athletic post play of Melbourne, the Terps are both bigger and more athletic in the post. Bogunovic should continue to increase minutes, and productivity from this position should continue to improve dramatically.

Branka Bogunovic

Overall, the Terps are certainly a young bunch in 1998-99, but Weller has assembled an athletic cast that could help in surprising ACC and national prognosticators. Her team's fortunes are most definitely dependent on the development of seven newcomers. But, says Weller with a lively grin, "These kids are enthusiastic. They've all come from winning programs and they're self-motivated. They already have high standards.

"Every player on this team has a chance to make their stamp on our program. Even Kelley (Gibson) has a chance for the first time to really step up and make her mark. These players are looking forward to returning Maryland to the national Top 20, even the Top 10. I'm excited."

Youth will be served at Maryland this season. Electric Youth.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

NEW TERP LOOK: As seven newcomers have been added to the Maryland roster, the 1998-99 women's basketball Terrapins present a brand new look for 24th-year head coach Chris Weller. The Terps welcome the return of starting guards Tiffany Brown and Kelley Gibson, and the improving play of 6-8 Serbian Branka Bogunovic. New faces will be used early and often as Weller hopes to recapture the enthusiasm and energy of her '80s and early '90s teams which annually challenged the ACC's and nation's finest programs.

RETURN TO THE DANCE?: Maryland hopes to rally behind top returners Brown, Gibson and Bogunovic, and a deep cast of newcomers to return the Terps to a bid in the NCAA Tournament. The Terps skipped the '98 tourney after dropping a first round bout to Purdue in 1997.

DOWNTOWN BROWN: Tiffany Brown already is Maryland's most prolific 3-point scorer after just two seasons, netting 84 triples as a freshman and sophomore. A junior this season, the 5-6 point guard needs 40 to crack the ACC Top 20 for career 3FGs made. She also was third on the team in assists (3.0) and is the Terps' top returning scorer (7.3).

GIBSON ALL-AROUND: The Terps' most athletic and best all-around player is senior guard/forward Kelley Gibson. Overcoming a pair of knee injuries the past two seasons, the fifth-year senior led Maryland in assists (4.3) last season while contributing mightily in scoring, rebounds and steals. Gibson started 27 of 28 games a year ago and trailed only Sonia Chase in Terps floor minutes.

Gibson

CHART-CLIMBER: Gibson's all-around play is evidenced by her movement on wide-ranging Maryland statistical charts. Despite a pair of knee injuries and missed time over four seasons, Gibson is currently among Terps career leaders in assists, steals, blocks and 3-point field goals. Barring further injury, Gibson could finish among Maryland leaders in virtually every statistical category.

Remarkably, in 77 games and more than 2,000 minutes, Gibson has been disqualified just twice in her career.

BRANKA'S BREAKOUT YEAR?: Since arriving in College Park, Branka Bogunovic has routinely been referred to as the tallest player in Maryland women's basketball history. Now she hopes to be regarded as the Terps' starting center and a potent force in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Bogunovic

The 6-8 junior started 23 games last year and progressively showed improvement after an 8-game, 5-minute average as a freshman. After averaging 4.1 points and 3.9 rebounds in Terps' non-conference tilts a year ago, Bogunovic ended her sophomore season with a 9.1 scoring clip and 4.6 rebounding average during a rigorous ACC schedule. She shot 43.1 percent from the floor during non-league games, but improved to shoot 56.8 percent against the best conference in the nation.

UNITED NATIONS IN COLLEGE PARK: Three current Terrapins were born overseas and a fourth has parents and family still in Africa. In all, this quartet continues a Maryland tradition under Chris Weller since the arrival of All-American and former WNBA star Jasmina Perazic from Yugoslavia in 1979. Terp foreigners this season include junior Branka Bogunovic from Serbia and newcomer Maria Ilic from neighboring Yugoslavia. Local product Antonieta Gabriel was born in Namibia. Freshman forward Ije Agba was born and raised in nearby Rockville, Md., but her parents both were born in Nigeria.

Weller has traditionally had foreign players dot the Maryland roster including recent players such as Rachel Cimmier (France) and Nina Ohman (Finland). Limor Mizrachi (Israel) played just one season and teamed with Deanna Tate to form the Terps' backcourt on the No. 1 ranked Maryland squad of 1991-92. Others are Lea Hakala (Finland), Kaisa Maine (Finland), Aluma Goren (Israel), Ana Marjanovic (Yugoslavia) and Michele Andrew (Finland).

WELLER AND BIG THREE: Only three ACC women's basketball coaches have guided their programs continuously from the time the league opened its doors to the women's hoop championship in 1978. Maryland's Chris Weller shares the distinction with Kay Yow of NC State and Virginia's Debbie Ryan. The trio are 1-2-3 among all-time ACC coaching leaders for overall and ACC victories, and wins in the ACC Tournament. Each has been at their respective institutions over 20 seasons.

WELLER'S 450TH: The Maryland boss is just three wins shy of her milestone 450th collegiate coaching victory. The national coach of the year in 1992, Weller is third in the ACC in all-time coaching wins and enters the '98-99 season listed 20th among Division I active coaches nationally.

DEFENDING THE HOME COURT: The Terps have always been formidable on the home floor dating to an 8-1 mark in Chris Weller's first season, and including an ACC regular season single game attendance mark (14,500 sellout) when the No. 1-ranked Terps met No. 2 Virginia in 1992.

The Terps are 224-69 (.765) in 23 seasons under Chris Weller and 206-67 (.754) since ACC play began in 1978.

The Terps are 20-6 at Cole Field House in the last two seasons, including last year's 84-62 dismantling of No. 7 North Carolina before a national audience on ESPN2. Maryland was 9-4 at home in '97-98 and 11-2 in '96-97.

Maryland '66
(447-221, .669) Career Record

On and Off the Court

Since 1980, every player who has finished her eligibility at Maryland has graduated, with just one exception.

Maryland's refined graduation rate (adusted for transfers) is 96% for women's basketball players.

Every class has reached at least one national championship tournament.

All but four classes under Coach Weller have reached the Elite Eight. All but three have reached the Sweet Sixteen.

Honors & Awards

- Naismith National Coach of the Year, 1992
- Basketball Writer's Association of America Coach of the Year, 1992
- Converse District III Coach of the Year, 1992
- ACC Coach of the Year, 1989, 1992
- Kodak District III Coach of the Year, 1993
- American Sports Foundation Coach of the Year, 1989
- Member of the U.S. Olympic Committee, 1985
- Assistant Coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team, 1985
- Head Coach for the U.S. Select Team, 1986, 1992, 1994
- WBCA Chairperson, NCAA Legislative Committee, 1992-present
- Member of the Kodak All-America Committee
- Member of the USA Women's Basketball Olympic Committee

These are just a few of the accomplishments Chris Weller and the Terrapin program have attained in her 23 years of coaching at Maryland. Entering her 24th season, Weller has registered a 447-221 (.669) career mark at her alma mater while accomplishing many remarkable achievements. Among the more notables:

• Weller became only the fifth NCAA Division I coach to earn at least 400 victories at a single institution.

• The Terrapins have been ranked in the Top 10 nationally nine times and the Top 25 on 14 occasions.

• Maryland earned a No. 1 ranking in the nation during much of the 1992 campaign.

• She has guided the Terps to 10 Sweet 16 appearances.

• Weller-guided teams have advanced to national championship tournaments in 15 of the last 21 seasons.

• Every class of athletes that Weller has brought to Maryland has reached the NCAA or AIAW national tournament, and all but three classes since 1975 have participated in at least one Sweet Sixteen. All but four have advanced to the Elite Eight.

In addition to Weller's accomplishments, several of her players have experienced personal success as well. The Terrapin program has produced five Olympians, three Kodak All-Americans, 28 athletes who have participated on national teams and five players currently active in professional basketball. But Terrapin success goes far beyond the basketball court: it extends into the classroom as well. Since 1980, all but one athlete who finished her eligibility earned a diploma. This is a tribute to Weller's high expectations for her student-athletes both on and off the court.

Taking over the program in 1975 from Dottie McKnight, success came quickly for Chris Weller. The Terps produced a 20-win season her first year and advanced to the EAIAW Regional Tournament. The following season she coached the Terps to a final season ranking of 13th, the first of eight consecutive seasons the Terps finished ranked in the Top 20. In 1978 the Terps recorded a 27-4 record, won the first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference championship and advanced to the AIAW Final Four in Los Angeles, Calif. Maryland went on to win four more conference championships in the following five years along with its second trip to the Final Four in 1982. From 1976 to 1982, the Terps recorded five 20-win seasons and compiled a 151-46 mark.

Maryland advanced to the Sweet 16 both in 1983 and 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1988. The 1989 squad won a school record 29 games that included a 21-game win streak, advanced to the Terps' third Final Four appearance and finished fifth in the Associated Press poll. Maryland averaged a school-record 85.3 points per game in 1989, outscoring its opponents by an average of 19 points per game. Weller was named the ACC and American Sports Foundation's Coach of the Year in 1989.

Ranked 15th in the 1992 preseason poll, the Terps reached the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls for the first time in school history. On January 21, with a record of 15-1, the Terps garnered the top spot and stayed No. 1 through February 11. During that stretch, the largest crowd to ever witness a regular season ACC game took place when the No. 1 Terrapins met the second-ranked Virginia Cavaliers before a sellout crowd of 14,500 at Cole Field House. Maryland finished the season with a 25-6 mark and a final ranking of No. 8. Weller was honored by the press and coaching fraternity for her efforts in 1992. She was recognized as the Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Basketball Writer's Association of America Coach of the Year, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Weller's basketball knowledge and coaching expertise has extended beyond the confines of Cole Field House. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team in 1985 and the head coach of the U.S. Select Team in 1986, 1992 and 1994. Weller is also a chairperson of the WBCA Legislative Committee and has served on the Kodak All-America and U.S. Olympic committees.

A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. Following graduation, she taught and coached at John F. Kennedy High School in nearby Silver Spring, Md.

A popular speaker and teacher of the game, Weller returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant for two seasons under Dottie McKnight. In 1975, the Weller dynasty began as she was elevated to head coach.

Assistant Coach Christy Winters

2nd Season at Maryland
Maryland '90

Terp Talk with Christy

Someday I would like to take a trip to: Paris, the French Riviera and Ghana, where my family is originally from.

Best advice I've ever received is: "Don't look to me for confidence – you have to find it within yourself." (Coach Weller, 1986 during my freshman year at Maryland)

My craziest ambition is: To return a punt for a touchdown in the Super Bowl.

My heroes are: My mom who owns a Ph.D. in education and my dad who is a Baptist minister.

Christy Winters begins her second year on Chris Weller's staff and returns to College Park with a wealth of knowledge and experience as both a player and coach.

Winters spent a total of four seasons as an assistant coach at George Mason working with post players and handling the recruiting efforts for the Patriots. Winters also coached at Mason for the 1992-93 season. From 1991 to 1992 she played professionally for Pamela Sud in Pistoia, Italy, and in 1993 and 1994 she played and coached professionally for City Fribourg in Switzerland. In 1994 she was the league's leading scorer, averaging 37 points and 13 rebounds per game while playing for European Cup semi-finalist City Fribourg.

Winters was a four-year letterwinner with the Terrapins from 1986 to 1990. In 1989, Winters helped Maryland win its eighth Atlantic Coast Conference championship and reach its third Final Four. As a senior, Winters was a first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference and Kodak All-East Region selection as she led the Terps in scoring with 533 points (17.8 ppg).

The Reston, Va., native is the second all-time leading scorer at Maryland with 1,679 points, fourth in rebounding with 723 and first in career games played with 123. Winters is one of only two players to score more than 700 field goals (703) at Maryland. Winters also ranks in the all-time top 10 at Maryland in games started (4th with 100), blocked shots (5th with 91) and field goal percentage (6th with .537).

Winters earned her degree in communications and has done broadcasting work for Home Team Sports and hosted a segment of "Jam Session" syndicated on NBC. For the last two years, she has co-produced and co-hosted "The Roundball Report" on CTV in Prince George's County, Md.

Winters is the all-time leading scorer at South Lakes High School, having amassed 1,785 points and over 1,000 rebounds. As a senior, she led her team to a perfect 29-0 mark and the 1986 Virginia AAA state championship. She was the 1986 Washington Post All-Met Player of the Year, Gatorade Player of the Year, Converse All-America and Parade All-America selection.

The Winters File

Birthdate: May 23, 1968
High School: South Lakes (Reston, Va.)
College Education: Maryland '90
College Playing Experience: Four-year letterwinner at University of Maryland (1986-90)
Coaching Career: Assistant coach, George Mason (1992-93, 1994-97); assistant coach, University of Maryland (1997-present).

Assistant Coach Jeanette Armentano

1st Season at Maryland
Queens '81

Terp Talk with Jeanette

My motto is: "No one cares how much you know, until they know how much you care."

My craziest ambition is: To be President of the United States.

If I could invite any four people in history to dinner, they would be: Martin Luther King, Eleanor Roosevelt, Pat Summitt and Barbara Streisand.

If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My car phone.

A former assistant coach at Cal State Northridge, Jeanette Armentano begins her first year under Chris Weller at Maryland. She served four seasons with the Matadors where she was the school's first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for women's basketball.

Armentano was responsible for gathering the 19th-ranked recruiting class in the country in 1995-96 by Blue Star Index, and brought to Northridge the top point guard in California the following year. Armentano directed CSN's pre- and postseason conditioning, and by the 1997-98 campaign Cal State Northridge completed its best season in a short Division I history. The Matadors finished 14-14 a year ago and their 9-7 record in the Big Sky Conference made them a first-time qualifier for the league's postseason tournament. Included among the season of highlights were near-upsets of national powers USC and Iowa.

A New York native and graduate of Queens College, Armentano began her collegiate coaching trek as a coaching intern for one season at Rutgers where she learned under current Illinois mentor and 1992 USA Women's Olympic Coach Teresa Grentz.

She played, herself, through four seasons at Queens College where she earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1981. She earned a master's degree in curriculum and development of physical education at Columbia University. Master's studies took her to The Town School in Manhattan where she eventually stayed at the private school to teach physical education and coach elementary and middle school basketball until 1988.

Prior to her stint at Rutgers and subsequent trek to the West Coast to kick-start her new career, Armentano, 38, taught P.E. and coached girls basketball at Blind Brook High School in Rye Brook, N.Y. From 1988 to 1993, she enhanced the basketball program from its middle school roots and initiated Blind Brook's first-ever summer basketball camp for girls. She also was a part-time coach at Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., where her responsibilities included recruiting and scouting.

The Armentano File

Birthdate: Oct. 10, 1960
High School: Harry S. Truman (Bronx, N.Y.)
College Education: Queens College '81
College Playing Experience: Four-year letterwinner at Queens College '81
Coaching Career: Intern, Rutgers University (1993-94); assistant coach/recruiting coordinator, Cal State Northridge (1994-98); assistant coach, University Maryland (1998-present).

Assistant Coach Karl Smesko

1st Season at Maryland
Kent '93

Terp Talk with Karl

My motto is: "Don't get beat by being outworked."

The greatest thing about being a coach is: Helping players accomplish something they didn't know they could accomplish.

If I lost all of my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My memory.

I look forward to working with Coach Weller because: She is a winner.

The word that describes me best is: Determined.

Beginning his first season at Maryland is 28-year old NAIA Coach of the Year Karl Smesko. Now just two years removed from his post as graduate assistant at Walsh University in North Canton, Ohio, Smesko earned national coaching honors last season with his unexpected rise to national champion in his first year as head coach.

Named to the Terrapin staff in August, Smesko took over the Walsh program last season after only a year in the assistant coaching ranks. He inherited a team that was projected to finish sixth out of nine in the Mid-Ohio Conference but qualified for its first national tournament and captured the first national title of any sport in school history.

Smesko led the team to the best record in school history, 29-5, while maintaining every aspect of the program including fund raising and camps. As an assistant coach the year prior, in just his first season on the college level, he played a major role in implementing offenses and defenses, and on-court coaching.

An Ohio native and a 1993 graduate of Kent State University, Smesko coached boy's basketball at Revere High School in Richfield, Ohio before completing his master's degree in education at Walsh. He coached at all levels of the Revere program for seven years before arriving at Walsh as a graduate assistant for the 1996-97 campaign.

He graduated summa cum laude (3.92 GPA) at Kent, with a major in broadcast news journalism and minor in sociology. He has done media work with local radio and TV outlets in Kent, Akron and Streetsboro, Ohio.

Terp Talk with Jimmy

Best advice I've ever received is: "Quitters never win."

My craziest ambition is: To win a national championship and when Dick Vitale asks, 'What are you going to do next?' tell him that I'm going to Disneyland.

If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: John Wooden, Martin Luther King and Halle Berry.

One thing you probably didn't know about me is: I have two sons and their names are Marco and Michael Howard.

Joining the Terrapin staff in August 1998, native Washingtonian Jimmy Howard begins his first year at the University of Maryland. Howard coordinates team activities off the floor and interfaces with Terp coaches in every facet of day-to-day administration.

Most recently an assistant coach at nearby Georgetown University, Howard spent nine seasons at Wesley College in Dover, Del., where he was the head women's coach for six years and assistant men's coach for three. Howard directed a fiery defensive squad which finished among NCAA Division III leaders in field goal percentage defense five times. His club once established a Division III record by holding Old Westbury to just nine points in a game.

Howard, 35, guided Wesley to a 22-3 mark in the 1992-93 season to record the school's best record. Prior to his naming as head coach of the Wesley women's program, he worked from 1988 to 1991 with the Wesley men's program. He was an assistant men's coach for one season at Greensboro College, in the 1987-88 season.

A local product of Phelps Vocational High School in metropolitan D.C., Howard attended Wesley (then a junior college) for two years and earned an associate of arts degree in retail marketing in 1984. He was a shooting guard on Wesley teams that compiled a 40-9 record over two seasons, before transferring to Greensboro College in North Carolina. He played point guard and helped lead Greensboro to the 1985 NCAA Division III South Region championship in 1985, and after two seasons, earned a bachelor's degree in retail marketing and business administration in 1986.

Terp Talk with Kelley

Full Name: Jawann Kelley Gibson
Birthdate: Nov. 7, 1976
Parents: Gregory and Marcia Ritchie
Siblings: Andre (28)
Major: Kinesiology
My goal for 1998 is to: Win the ACC championship
Best advice I ever received was: "If you have a dream, don't give up on it, no matter what happens."
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My smile.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Martin Luther King, Princess Diana and my great aunt Hilda Flamer.

The most athletic and dynamic of Maryland's returning stars, Kelley Gibson also is the Terps' lone senior in 1998-99 ... returns a 6.8-point scoring average from her junior campaign and can be expected to raise point totals considerably this season ... already listed among Maryland career leaders in 3-point shooting, assists, steals and blocks, and should cap her career among leaders in shooting and scoring, also ... excellent all-around player with outstanding quickness ... player who penetrates well, can shoot the 3-point shot, and has the versatility to play small forward or guard positions ... has twice overcome season-ending knee injuries ... has only completed full seasons as a junior and redshirt freshman.

1997-98

Gibson boasted unique status last season while leading the Terps in the unusual combination of assists and blocks ... starter in all 28 games, she trailed only current WNBA rookie Sonia Chase in minutes played ... tallied 119 assists (4.3) and 16 blocks (0.6) while recording 6.8 points with 4.4 rebounds ... had points and rebounds in every game ... registered six double-figure scoring efforts including a season-best 16 points in the Dial Classic vs. Hartford ... also against Hartford, had seven assists, five steals and six rebounds while playing the entire 40 minutes ... played a career-high 43 minutes in an overtime victory at Cole over Wake Forest ... had career-best rebounding performances of 12 vs. No. 7 North Carolina (13 points) at Cole Field House, and 11 in the ACC opener against Georgia Tech (11 points) ... North Carolina and Georgia Tech games were also the first double-double efforts of her career ... led the ACC in assists through much of her junior campaign before finishing fourth ... matched a career-best with eight assists in three different games last season, and posted 11 games with six or more assists ... remarkably, in 77 games and more than 2,000 minutes, has been disqualified just twice in her career.

1996-97

Gibson played in 19 games with 14 starts, but suffered a season-ending knee injury against Florida State on Jan. 30 ... finished the season as the Terps' fourth leading scorer (9.4) and rebounder (4.2) ... selected to the all-tournament team at the Rutgers Brother Holiday Tournament ... averaged 11 points and 6.5 rebounds in games against Vermont and Howard ... best shooting performance of the season came against Loyola when she netted a season-high 19 points on 9-of-14 shooting ... grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds in Maryland's 54-51 victory over No. 15 NC State.

1995-96

Gibson played in all 27 games, earning the starting nod in 13 games including the final 11 ... scored a career-high 28 points against then-11th-ranked Clemson, and also grabbed a career-high nine rebounds ... played well down the stretch as she scored 27 points against Florida State and then had 23 against Virginia a week later, both at Cole Field House ... shot 65 percent from the field (11-for-17) against Florida State, and carved her name into the Maryland record book after shooting 10-for-10 at the free throw line against Virginia ... averaged 18 points in Maryland's final 10 games ... established a still-standing career-high eight assists against Wake Forest, and recorded a season-high seven steals against Loyola on Jan. 16.

1994-95

A redshirt season after injuring her knee in just the third game of the season ... netted 12 points and five boards in the opener against Virginia Tech to lead the team in scoring ... tallied a pair of points, three rebounds and a block against Mount St. Mary's, and had 10 points against Howard before her injury ... also rejected two shots and grabbed two boards.

Before Maryland

Gibson's jersey was retired at Easton High School after a tremendous career with a record 2,220 points and 1,008 rebounds ... once tallied a school record 53 points in a single game ... reached the 1,000 point plateau as a sophomore, and led her squad to two state championship titles ... led her 1993-94 squad to a 22-1 mark, and earned MVP and Eastern Shore Player of the Year status as a senior ... honorable mention Kodak All-American, AAU and Nike All-American ... earned Street & Smith's honorable mention All-America accolades ... involved with the Senior Senate, D.A.R.E. student group, Drama Club and Varsity Club ... was a member of Minds in Motion (GPA of 3.5 or better) ... also played volleyball for three years and participated in track for a year where she was second in the state in the high jump and third place in the long jump ... coached by Tom Callahan.

Terp Talk with Branka

Full Name: Branka Bogunovic
Birthdate: May 5, 1979
Parents: Milivoje and Mila Bogunovic
Siblings: Petar (24)
Major: Chemistry/Pre-Med
My goal for 1998 is: To help my team get to the Final Four.
My craziest ambition is: To become a superstar and dunk.
If I could change one thing about myself I would: Want to be a 5-foot, 8-inch point guard.
My hero is: My brother, Petar.
One thing you probably don't know about me is: After basketball, my biggest interest is to pursue modeling.

At 6-8, Bogunovic is the tallest woman to ever play basketball at Maryland ... enters her junior campaign with expectations of becoming a dominant force in the ACC ... earned 23 starts as a sophomore and steadily improved her level of play ... one of three returning starters on a young team that yearns for leadership ... has adapted well to American style of play since playing just eight games as a freshman ... runs the court well and has worked hard the past two summers to develop strong post moves ... plays with a contagious smile and has become a fan favorite in Cole Field House.

1997-98

Bogunovic played in all 28 games as a sophomore, and started in 23 ... started in 10 straight games to end the season, including a pair of ACC Tournament games ... averaged 17.2 minutes overall, 19.8 in ACC games, and 26.3 in the final four games of the regular season ... best game saw her register the only double-double of her career, with 14 points and 11 boards in 39 minutes during a 74-70 overtime loss vs. Clemson ... posted a career high 17 points in an earlier game at Clemson, shooting 8-of-11 from the field ... scored 16 points in both games against Georgia Tech last season, combining to shoot 15-of-23 against the Yellow Jackets ... had a career-high 14 rebounds in a non-league tilt against Loyola, and recorded seven offensive rebounds vs. Hampton ... nearly 50 percent of her rebounds were under the Terps' bucket (59 offensive, 62 defensive).

1996-97

Bogunovic played in eight games, and saw action in five of Maryland's first nine games ... first game action came against Morgan State, scoring two points and collecting three rebounds in six minutes ... scored a season-high eight points against Towson State, going 4-of-7 from the field in nine minutes against the Tigers ... collected five rebounds against Radford in the Dial Classic ... saw action against three ACC schools: Clemson, North Carolina and Wake Forest ... scored a total of four points in seven minutes in conference play ... averaged five minutes per game.

Before Maryland

Bogunovic played for Serbia's junior national team, guiding the club to a perfect 12-0 mark ... was named team MVP ... her brother, Petar, plays basketball as well.

Terp Talk with Tiffany

Full Name: Tiffany Renee Brown
Birthdate: Dec. 18, 1978
Parents: Rhonda and Richard Brown
Siblings: Traci (23)
Major: Family Studies
My goal for 1998 is to: Win the ACC championship
My motto is: "Reach for the moon because even if you miss, you'll still be among the stars."
Best advice I've ever received is: "Go get it!"
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My photo albums.
Someday I would like to take a trip to: Jamaica

A junior with tremendous athletic ability and quickness, Tiffany Brown inherits the Terps' point guard position for the second straight season ... has good passing skills and was third on the club in assists as a sophomore, but her most heralded skill has been her team-leading 3-point prowess ... entering just her junior season, already holds Maryland school records for season and career 3-point field goals ... should begin climbing all-time ACC charts this season ... floor leadership characteristics include a good understanding of the game, and good vision.

1997-98

Brown played in 24 of 28 games last season, and started 21 ... has appeared in 52 of 56 games during a two-year career ... lists 1-2 among Terps' single season 3-point field goals with a record 48 as a freshman, and 36 last season ... tied the career mark for 3FGs at Wake Forest last season, and netted three treys to break the mark, at Cole against No. 21 Clemson ... played 40 minutes in seven games last season, including a 21-point, seven-rebound effort vs. No. 10 NC State ... matched her own Terp record with six 3FGs against the Wolfpack ... three nights later, eclipsed her record with seven 3FGs while posting a career high 26 points on 7-of-11 shooting in 84-62 upset win over No. 7 North Carolina ... games vs. NC State and North Carolina were the seventh and eighth times she led the Terps in scoring in her career ... has scored 20 points or more on five occasions ... set a personal-best eight assists against Harvard, and twice matched her career high with four steals (four times as a freshman, also).

1996-97

Brown was an ACC All-Freshman team selection, playing in all 28 games and starting 10 ... was the team's fifth-leading scorer with an 8.6 points per game average, and led the Terps in scoring six times ... was second on the team in assists with 2.4 per game ... college debut came against No. 15 Penn State, with all 12 points coming from behind the three-point line on 4-of-7 shooting ... grabbed a season-high 10 rebounds in her Cole Field House debut, against Morgan State ... selected to the all-tournament team at the Dial Classic after averaging 11.5 points and three rebounds in games against Radford and Southwest Texas State ... led Maryland in scoring six times as a freshman including a record six treys and then-career-high 24 points vs. Georgia Tech ... registered the first of three 20-plus point games against Iona (22 points) ... scored 21 on the road against No. 5-ranked North Carolina ... converted 4-of-7 3FGs at Duke to break Maryland's single season record, and finished the season with 48 ... broke teammate Kelley Gibson's record of 84 3-point attempts in a season with 134 ... was a two-time ACC Rookie of the Week, and finished fourth in the ACC with a .358 3-point field goal percentage.

Before Maryland

Brown was named honorable mention All-American by USA Today and Street & Smith's Magazine after starting four years at Elizabeth Seton High ... all-state, All-WCAC, All-PG County and second team All-Met selection following her junior campaign ... was the player of the year in Prince George's County, guiding the Roadrunners to their best start (22-0) in eight years, during her junior season ... as a junior, led her AAU team to a fifth place finish at national championships ... was a member of Who's Who in American High School Sports in 1995, and served as her team's co-captain her final three years ... was selected her club's MVP after leading an AAU squad to the U.S. Junior National Championship in Baltimore as a sophomore ... considered the best player in Seton basketball history, made an immediate impact as a freshman, averaging a team-high 13.1 points and 3.1 steals per game ... coached by Aimee Fellows.

Terp Talk with Antonieta

Full Name: Antonieta L.C. Gabriel
Birthdate: April 24, 1977
Parents: Celestino and Eva Gabriel
Siblings: Livio (31), Nelson (30), Silverio (26), Flavio (25), Angelica (23), Mina (18), Ana (18)
Major: Foreign Languages
My motto is: "Don't talk about it. Be about it."
Best advice I've ever received is: "It ain't over until the Fat Lady sings."
My craziest ambition is: To go bungee jumping.
One thing you probably didn't know about me is: I am originally from Africa. I was born in Rundu, Namibia and my family is originally from Angola.

Antonieta Gabriel begins her second season with the Terps after transferring from the University of District of Columbia ... a junior, she is a strong defensive player and rebounder who adds depth to Maryland's forward position ... great natural athlete who has appeared in 17 career games at Maryland ... athletic ability is expected to emerge with additional playing time and experience.

1997-98

Gabriel made two starts in her 17 appearances last season ... earned starting nods in the Terps' home opener against Loyola, and in the ACC opener on the road at 23rd-ranked Duke ... averaged 0.5 points and 1.4 rebounds off the bench last season ... took only seven shots from the floor, but provided rebounding balance in the paint ... greatest playing time was a 25-minute effort in the Loyola game ... contributed a personal best five rebounds against Howard, and had 24 for the season ... posted 11 rebounds during 10 ACC appearances ... had two points and three boards in a 15-minute stint at Clemson ... played two games each against Clemson and Florida State, and one game apiece against the remaining six ACC opponents.

Before Maryland

Gabriel played at the University of District of Columbia as a freshman where she started 24 games and averaged 5.7 points and 8.5 rebounds ... led the Firebirds with 127 defensive rebounds ... and a member of the Dean's List at UDC.

Before College

Team MVP of freshman and junior varsity teams at Salem High School ... was an honor roll student.

Terp Talk with Ijeoma

Full Name: Ijeoma Nwanneka Agba
Nickname: Ije
Birthdate: Jan. 2, 1981
Parents: Ebelechukwu and Vicky Agba (parents are from Nigeria and married before coming to U.S. for her father to attend Ohio State on an academic scholarship; he transferred to the University of Iowa, graduated from M.I.T. and now is an assets manager with the District of Columbia)
Siblings: Keka (16), Jide (12), Ifey (11)
Major: Biochemistry
Activities/Honors: Maryland Scholars Program (3.93 GPA)
My motto is: "You only fail when you stop trying!"
My favorite athlete is: Michael Jordan because he is the best player ever to play the sport.
Someday I would like to take a trip to: Europe.
My craziest ambition: Is to marry a great athlete and make lots of money.
The word that best describes me is: Nice.

A defense-minded forward from nearby Rockville, Ijeoma Agba is one of eight Terrapin newcomers this season … goes by Ije (pronounced EE-jay) … she "plays big," says Weller, and rebounds very well ... will contribute to a much more aggressive rebounding team this season for Maryland ... characterized as a very hard worker who will score most of her points under the bucket ... can play both the "3" and "4" positions ... signed with Maryland and coach Chris Weller in April after a standout career at Wheaton High School … having shown versatility inside and out, she is expected to fill a role at either forward position.

Before Maryland

Agba averaged 12.6 points, 9.9 rebounds and 2.7 steals during her senior season at Wheaton High ... second-team all-state by the Washington Post and all-county selection … very heady player who guided her team to back-to-back state championships ... team was 26-0 as a senior and 24-2 as a junior ... won team's "Unsung Hero" award … was most valuable player of Sherwood Holiday Tournament ... finished her career ranked first in school history with 739 rebounds, and 10th with 700 points … coached by Walt Dupee.

Weller on Agba

"I'm excited to see where Ije fits in with us this year because she's so versatile. She really is the kind of player who may not be flashy and stand out above everyone, but rather be a worker and find ways to get the job done. She is a hard worker. I look forward to watching her develop into a good college rebounder."

If I could change one thing about myself, I would: Have a natural tan.
The word that best describes me is: Goofy.
My hero is: My mother.

A consistent and steady player, Cara Ferris begins her first season at the University of Maryland … transfer from Pensacola Junior College in Florida ... expected to fill dual roles at swing and power forward for the Terps … characterized by Terp coaches as a shooter, and should see significant playing time in her first season ... has good size for the wing position … "She is a good offensive player and good passer," says Weller ... "Cara has two years JC experience. We hope she brings us a sense of stability and a level of maturity. She already knows a little what is required to play at this level." ... expected to play a perimeter role on offense, and could see some time in the paint on defense.

Before Maryland

Ferris played two seasons at Pensacola Junior College in Pensacola, Fla. ... team co-captain and first team all-conference selection as a sophomore … honorable mention all-league as a freshman … averaged 18.7 points in 1998 with eight rebounds and 3.7 assists … coached by Vicki Carson.

Before College

Prepped at Washington High School in Pensacola where she lettered in basketball, softball, volleyball and track during her career … was a part of state championships in 1993 and 1994 … first team all-league as a junior and senior, and honorable mention as a sophomore … team and conference MVP as a senior in 1996 … averaged 25.7 points and 13 rebounds per game as a senior … team rebounding leader in her final two seasons …scored 33 points with 21 rebounds in district championship game as a senior … Georgia Tech newcomer Candi Fails was a teammate at Pensacola JC … received recruiting inquiries from Virginia, Texas, Arkansas, Michigan State and Long Beach State … coached by Ronnie Bond.

Weller on Ferris

"Cara is a steady, smart and consistent player whose greatest benefit this season might be her maturity. She is a newcomer, but she's a little older and more experienced than most of our players. I hope to see Cara emerge in some sort of leadership role with this young team."

MARIJA ILIC

Terp Talk with Marija

Full Name: Marija Ilic
Birthdate: April 9, 1980
Parents: Tatjana and Vojislav Ilic
Siblings: brother Nemanja (15)
Major: History
Activities/Honors: 3.7 GPA in high school
My motto is: "I want, I can, I must."
Someday I would like to take a trip to: Paris.
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: "The Road Less Travelled" by Scott Peck.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Napoleon, Josip Broz Tito (Communist president of Yugoslavia, 1953-80) and Franklin D. Roosevelt.
My craziest ambition is: To be an NBA referee (she was a basketball referee in Yugoslavia).
The word that best describes me is: Ambitious.
One thing you probably don't know about me is: I enjoy collecting postcards from all over the world.

One of two Terrapin players from the Serbia/Yugoslavia region, Marija Ilic reports for her first season at Maryland … brings more height to the guard position than most typical American players, reflecting a trait often favored by Coach Weller … a steady player who should adapt to her freshman role behind veterans Tiffany Brown and Kelley Gibson ... a big point guard who can shoot the 3-pointer in typical European fashion ... skilled player who needs to adapt to an American style of play, improve her strength and develop stronger defensive skills.

Before Maryland

Ilic attended Ocean City High School in Ocean City, N.J. … attended the school on a foreign exchange program ... scorer and assist-maker in high school, averaging 12.7 points, 6.0 rebounds and 10.3 assists … team finished 13-11 … all-tournament selection at Wildwood Christmas Tournament … coached by Christine Lentz.

Weller on Ilic

"Marija really only needs to continue adapting to the American style of play. She is very enthusiastic, and a smart player. I look for her to continue improving and work into our guard rotation. She has good shooting skills."

ROSITA MELBOURNE

Terp Talk with Rosita

Full Name: Rosita Melbourne
Birthdate: Jan. 28, 1980
Parents: Keith Melbourne and Romaine Doster
Siblings: Bonnie Doster (16)
Major: Undecided
Activities/Honors: 3.2 GPA in high school, active in student government and National Honor Society
My goal for 1998 is: To win the ACC championship and go to the NCAA Tournament.
My craziest ambition is: To go sky diving after we win an NCAA championship.
Someday I would like to take a trip to: Jamaica.
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My heart.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Martin Luther King, Mother Teresa and Malcolm X.
The word that best describes me is: Crazy.
My favorite athlete is: Dennis Rodman because he's crazy and a great rebounder.

Rosita Melborne is an outstanding freshman athlete whom Maryland coaches hope can develop quickly to the Terp program and collegiate level of play … a raw athlete with quickness, leaping ability and shot blocking capabilities ... Weller says that Melbourne may well be the quickest post player she has ever welcomed to the Maryland program ... "When you talk rebounding, you talk Rosita," says Weller ... expected to refine specific skills, but is regarded as a jumper and shot-blocker ... will play the post and "4" positions, and could probably defend the wing in a big lineup.

Before Maryland

Nike All-America selection out of Woodson High School where she ranked 16th out of 450 players ranked by the All-Star Girls Report … ranked the 40th top freshman in the country in Athlon's annual preseason magazine … helped lead Woodson to a DCIAA championship and an appearance in the city title game at Cole Field House ... was an honorable mention All-Met selection by the Washington Post and a first team All-Inner High member ... played in several high school all-star games … MVP of DCIAA all-star game …averaged 15 points, 14 rebounds, four blocks and four assists as a junior ... also lettered two years apiece in volleyball and track … school record-holder in triple jump with distance of 38.5 feet … led volleyball team in kills as a senior … awarded the Wendy's Heisman Trophy for athletic and academic achievement ... earned recognition as a Future's 500 member ... signed early with the Maryland program in November 1997.

Weller on Melbourne

"Rosita hasn't played yet at this level. She may well be our most talented, all-around athlete, and at 6-3, that will be very valuable in the post. She's a great athlete. I really look forward to watching Rosita get better and better. She only needs time. And maybe not that much time, either. She is very raw and very talented."

GINJI PERRY

Terp Talk with Ginji

Full Name: Ginji Marie Perry
Birthdate: Jan. 15, 1979
Parents: Carlita and Gary Perry
Siblings: Gary, Jr. (21), Carla (19)
Major: Undecided
My goal for 1998 is: To win the ACC championship and go to the Final Four.
My motto is: "Just Do It."
My craziest ambition is: To go swimming in the deepest, darkest part of the ocean.
If I was Coach Weller for a day, I would: Give the team a day off.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Jesus, Adam and Eve.
The word that best describes me is: Sensitive.
If I could change one thing about myself I would: Be less sensitive.
My favorite athlete is: Kelley Gibson.
My hero is: My grandmother.
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My cat, "Little."

Ginji Perry is a talented guard prospect … could share playing time with Terp veterans given some quality preseason experience and development … one of the Terps' most heralded recruits ... a poised, all-around talent who can score and excels as a ball-handler ... aggressive player who plays with emotion and fire ... "She's got some savvy, she can create," says Weller. "She's an all-around type of player very much like Kelley Gibson. Ginji can probably play the '1', '2' or '3' positions. She is solid, she'll play some minutes."

Before Maryland

Perry prepped at the same school, Elizabeth Seton High School in metropolitan D.C., as fellow Terp guard Tiffany Brown … led her team to two consecutive city championships ... two-time All-Met and three-time Washington Catholic Area all-conference selection … averaged 17.2 points, 8.1 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 3.2 steals and led Seton to a 29-2 mark and No. 2 state ranking as a senior … chosen the Washington Post All-Met Player of the Year as a junior in 1996 … Seton was 33-1 in her junior year and 25-2 as a sophomore ... all-state as a junior and senior … three-time all-county selection and all-county player of the year as a senior … led Seton for three seasons in scoring, rebounds and steals … MVP of Bishop Walsh Tournament in Cumberland … MVP of numerous tourneys including IAABO Christmas Tournament when she scored 23 points with 13 rebounds as a sophomore to defeat Good Counsel in local rivalry … sat out the 1997-98 season before enrolling at Maryland … also recruited by Virginia Tech, DePaul, Howard, St. John's and Syracuse … Seton teammates Davalyn Cunningham and Alana Lambert are currently playing at Rutgers and Howard, respectively … coached by Aimee Fellows.

Weller on Perry

"I'm not sure what to say about Ginji except that there's not much she doesn't do well on the floor. She is athletic, fiery, smart and very poised. I like the way she plays. She's young and she will make her share of mistakes like every young player, but she should always improve. I expect her to make the most of her opportunities."

MARCHÉ STRICKLAND

Terp Talk with Marché

Full Name: Marché Louise Strickland
Birthdate: April 13, 1980
Parents: Joanna and Marshall Strickland
Siblings: Marshall III (15), Marah (10)
Major: Undecided
My goal for 1998 is: To be successful academically and athletically.
My motto is: "Books, Ball & Body" (My three B's)
My craziest ambition is: To go on a safari in an African jungle.
If I was Coach Weller for a day, I would: Do exactly the same things she does.
Someday I would like to take a trip to: St. Thomas.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Michael Jordan, Martin Luther King and Dennis Rodman.
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: My teddy bear.
The word that best describes me is: Desire.
My heroes are: My parents.
My favorite athlete is: Dana Barros (NBA Celtics and Boston College). I know him personally, he is a great player, has a great shot and he works hard.
One thing you probably did not know about me is: I am very creative and I play the flute.

One of three early signees for the Maryland program in November 1997, Marché Strickland led the state of Massachusetts in scoring for two seasons … a perimeter shooter who could find a spot in the Terps' regular rotation given some fine-tuning in her all-around game ... says Weller, "She's a great shooter who may be one of our top scoring threats as a freshman." ... called a "student of the game" … very serious player, very smart and complete offensively.

Before Maryland

Strickland averaged 31.0 points per game at Silver Lake High School … scored 1,350 points in her final two seasons and 1,800 in a three-year career ... was a two-time Boston Globe first team all-scholastic selection, three-time USA Today honorable mention All-American, and the Old Colony League MVP in the '96, '97 and '98 seasons ... two-time all-state honoree who attended the prestigious Nike All-America Camp after her junior season ... three-year letterwinner who played all five positions on the floor at one time or another … biggest thrill was going "coast-to-coast" to score a 3-pointer and win a game by one point … signed with Maryland early in her senior season … coached by Richard Steele.

Weller on Strickland

"Marché is a great shooter who can flat out score. She's definitely a perimeter player. She is quick and has a very nice shot. I expect her to provide some of our scoring right away. She is not only talented, but smart, and whatever she lacks in experience, I expect she'll make up for it in effort, intensity and smarts."

Birthdate: March 10, 1980
Parents: Walter Warley (deceased) and Cheryl Warley
Siblings: Kim (26), Wendy (21), Lakeesha (8) and Yolanda (7)
Major: Kinesiology
My goal for 1998 is: To do my best at whatever I do.
My motto is: "Put your money where your mouth is."
My craziest ambition is: To dunk in one of our games.
Someday I would like to take a trip to: Paris.
If I could invite any three people in history to dinner, they would be: Martin Luther King, Malcolm X and Harriet Truman.
If I lost all my possessions but one, I'd want to keep: The five-dollar bill my father gave me before he passed away.
If I could change one thing about myself I would: Make my feet smaller.
My hero is: My mother.
My favorite athlete is: Dawn Staley because she was nice when I met her and she is an aggressive player like I want to be.

Deedee Warley commands a strong, physical presence in the post … one of four newcomers who could see time at the power forward position for the Terps ... another of Weller's favorite recruits this season whom she hopes can play significant minutes ... also should contribute to Maryland's increased scoring and rebounding productivity in the post … excellent offensive player who has "great offensive skills," says Weller ... "She knows how to finish, and can even step out and shoot the 3-pointer."

Before Maryland

Warley attended St. John's High School in the D.C. metro area where she was her team's MVP and helped guide her squad to a city championship ... team was 30-1 with Warley as its center/forward … team MVP as a sophomore, also … named All-Met by the Washington Post as a senior ... an all-tourney selection at the New Orleans Shake & Bake Tournament last January and was the leading rebounder at the Bishop Walsh Tournament in Cumberland ... an all-tourney pick at the Bishop Walsh Tournament as both a sophomore and senior … recruited by NC State, Duke, St. Joseph's, Boston College and Florida State.

Weller on Warley

"Deedee is a worker. She's a very strong player, physically, and one who will definitely see considerable time as a freshman. Deedee just plays hard. She will play a role in helping increase our rebounding this year."

1997-98 Season Review

Last season, the Terps advanced to the ACC Semifinals.

A Look Back At 1997-98

The Maryland Terrapins last year collected the 24th winning season of an illustrious women's basketball history which has been headed nearly from start to finish by longtime mentor Chris Weller.

The Terps overcame early losses in non-conference bouts with Loyola (Md.) and Rutgers to run off a string of seven straight wins for their longest victory streak of the season. In all, the Terps won eight of nine, and nine of 11 to take a 9-4 mark into January and the teeth of the Atlantic Coast Conference schedule.

Season highlights begin unquestionably with the Terps' 84-62 upset win over North Carolina. January 18 was the date on which Maryland dumped the Tar Heels at Cole Field House before a nationally-televised audience on ESPN2, and in front of the largest home crowd of the season. Tiffany Brown broke her own school mark for 3-pointers by making 7-of-11 behind the arc and collecting a career-high 26 points. Maryland shocked No. 7 UNC by handing the Heels their most lopsided loss since 1992 and denying North Carolina coach Sylvia Hatchell her 500th victory for the third straight game.

The North Carolina win sparked a mini-run for the Terps who won four of five, before losing four of five heading into the conference tournament.

Maryland got a career-high effort from Kalisa Davis in the team's home finale as her 28 points helped lift the Terps to a 77-49 win over Florida State. The win catapulted Maryland into an ACC Tournament first-round date with third-seed and No. 9-ranked NC State, and set the stage for Chris Weller's 16th coaching victory over a ranked NC State team in 24 seasons. Maryland advanced to the ACC semifinals with a 61-48 win over the Wolfpack. Sonia Chase paced Maryland with 19 points and 12 rebounds. Stephanie Cross came off the bench to add 17 and 10, respectively.

The Terps fell 63-44 to Clemson to end their run at an unprecedented ninth ACC Tournament title.

1997-98 Terrapin Honor Roll

• Sonia Chase was named a second team all-tournament selection at the ACC Tournament. The senior picked up one vote for ACC Player of the Year during the regular season, but was ironically thwarted in her bid for selection on all-conference teams.

• Kalisa Davis was a second team All-ACC pick in addition to her naming to the ACC All-Academic Team.

• Three Terps were named to the 1997-98 ACC Academic Honor Roll: Kalisa Davis, Meghan McIntyre and Michelle Miller.

• Sonia Chase was drafted by the WNBA and landed with the Charlotte Sting for her rookie campaign last summer. She teamed with former Maryland star and WNBA floor leader Vicky Bullett.

The Terps' starting five for most of the season featured (from left) Kalisa Davis, Tiffany Brown, Kelley Gibson, Sonia Chase and Stephanie Cross.

'97-98 Terps By the Numbers

1

Maryland's scoring defense led the Atlantic Coast Conference last season with an average of just 60.2 points allowed per game. The Terps allowed just 59.4 in ACC action.

Kelley Gibson led the Terrapins and was fourth in the ACC in assists last season with 4.3 per game.

5

Maryland was the only school in the ACC last season to boast five different players that recorded double-doubles during the season. Sonia Chase and Stephanie Cross each turned in three double-double efforts, including dual double performances in the Terps' 61-48 ACC Tournament victory over No. 9 NC State. Kalisa Davis and Kelley Gibson each posted a pair of double-doubles while Branka Bogunovic notched the first of her career at Cole Field House against Clemson.

7

Tiffany Brown buried seven 3-pointers in the Terrapins' rousing upset over North Carolina on ESPN2.

12

The number of wins during 15 games last season in which the Terps committed equal or fewer turnovers than their opponents.

37

Tiffany Brown was the only player in the ACC last season to average 37 minutes per game during the 16-game conference schedule.

200

The number of victories Chris Weller has posted against foes currently in the Atlantic Coast Conference, pre-dating the advent of the ACC women's basketball championship in 1977-78.

300

Stephanie Cross led the Terps in scoring as a freshman, sophomore and junior while becoming the first player in Maryland history to eclipse 300 points in four consecutive seasons. Her 1,349 career points are 11th in Terp history.

ACC Tournament Games at Independence Arena, Charlotte

Game 27
ACC Tournament - Quarterfinals
Maryland 61, NC State 48
February 27, 1998
Independence Arena

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - Stephanie Cross scored 12 of her 17 points in the second half and Maryland avenged a pair of regular-season losses to NC State with a 61-48 victory over the ninth-ranked Wolfpack in an ACC Tournament quarterfinal game.

Sonia Chase added 19 points and Kalisa Davis had 15 to help the Terrapins (15-12) advance to Saturday's semifinals against No. 16 Clemson, an 85-68 winner over Florida State.

NC State (21-6) had swept Maryland in the regular season by a combined 30 points, but the Wolfpack shot 36 percent and had seven second-half turnovers that the Terrapins converted into eight points.

Chasity Melvin, N.C. State's best scorer and rebounder, struggled much of the night and finished with 15 points and five rebounds in 25 minutes.

State was down by eight when Melvin picked up her fourth personal with 18:21 left and went to the bench, and the Wolfpack rallied for a 37-36 lead before falling behind again.

Cross had seven points in an 11-4 run that put Maryland up 49-43 by the time Melvin came back in with 6:05 remaining.

The Wolfpack cut it to 51-47 on a short jumper by Melvin at the 3:33 mark, but did not get another field goal the rest of the way.

Maryland sealed it by making six of eight foul shots in the last 56 seconds.

Maryland held N.C. State to one field goal over the last five minutes of the first half, clearing the way for the Terrapins to build a five-point lead heading into the final 20 minutes.

Game 28
ACC Tournament - Semifinals
Clemson 63, Maryland 44
February 28, 1998
Independence Arena

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - Iloro Umoh led a balanced attack with 15 points and No. 16 Clemson earned its third straight berth in the ACC tournament championship game with a 63-44 victory over Maryland.

Second-seeded Clemson (24-6) shot 57 percent in the first half and wasn't threatened the rest of the way, winning its eighth game in a row and improving to 22-0 when leading at halftime.

The Tigers, whose lone ACC title came in 1996, will play for No. 2 on Sunday against 10th-ranked North Carolina, a 56-52 winner over eighth-ranked and top-seeded Duke. The Tar Heels defeated Clemson in last year's ACC championship game and the two split their regular-season series this year, with each team winning on its home floor.

Maryland (15-13) knocked off ninth-ranked North Carolina State in Friday's semifinals, but the Terrapins didn't have an answer Saturday for Clemson's overall sound play. The Lady Tigers shot 52 percent, forced 22 turnovers and had five players score six or more points.

Sonia Chase had 12 points, the only Maryland player to score in double figures.

The Lady Tigers used a 22-6 run to build a 35-22 lead after a first half in which they got four points or more from five players. Clemson kept pulling away in the second half, stretching it to 52-31 with 7:45 left when Jeanette Davis fed Blassingame for a layup.

Atlantic Coast Conference

The Terps have won an unprecedented eight ACC championships.

About The Atlantic Coast Conference

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 46th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 72 NCAA and AIAW championships, including 37 in men's competition and 35 in women's. In addition, 108 men and 26 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

ACC Basketball

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA history. The men's and women's basketball programs have combined for 17 trips to the Final Four in the last 17 years, and 38 appearances overall. Following the North Carolina women's national championship season of 1994, the first-ever for the league, ACC teams have claimed eight titles while finishing second on ten occasions.

The league's women's basketball program ranks among the best in the country in terms of overall NCAA Tournament. With 71 appearances and 89 wins, the conference is listed second best in total appearances and total wins.

Over the years, ACC women's basketball teams have gained global recognition through their NCAA Tournament success and television exposure. The 1998-99 schedule will feature an all-time high 52 television appearances with 18 games on the league's regional sports network, six games on ESPN/ESPN2, four on FOX Sports South and two on Lifetime Network.

ACC Basketball is more than numbers though. The faces behind both programs account for 25 national player of the year honors and 18 national coach of the year awards, including Dawn Staley's player recognition in 1991 and 1992. Coach's distinctions include North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell (1994), Maryland's Chris Weller (1992), Virginia's Debbie Ryan (1991) and NC State's Kay Yow (1990). In women's play, the ACC has produced 26 first-team All-Americans, eight Olympians, including coaches and student-athletes. NC State's Kay Yow, assisted by Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina, headed up the 1988 gold medal-winning Olympic team. Maryland's Vicky Bullett was a member of both the 1988 and 1992 Olympic teams and Virginia's Dawn Staley was a member of the 1996 gold-medal winning Olympic squad in Atlanta.

The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. Since 1983, 221 women's basketball players have received ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition. The 1997-98 academic year included 36 selections. In addition ACC basketball players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors six times. In 1997 NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Eight players have earned ACC Postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was bro ken for the 12th-straight year in 1997-98 as 1,552 stu dent-athletes were recognized for their excellence i the classroom.

ACC History

The ACC was founded on May 8, 1953, at th Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven char ter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Caro lina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wak Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws. The with drawal of seven schools from the Southern Conferenc came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during th Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On Jun 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C. where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name be came officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On Dec. 4, 1953, conference officials met agai at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University o Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a schoo from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the Uni versity of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The conference operated with seven members until Apri 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlant school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference i January of 1964. The conference expanded to nin member institutions on July 1, 1991, with the additio of Florida State.

1998-99 ACC Tournament

ACC Announces New Format for 1999 Women's Basketball Tournament

A new format has been established for the 22nd annual Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball tournament, to be held Friday, Feb. 26 through Monday, March 1 at Independence Arena in Charlotte, N.C.

Under the new format, matching that of the ACC men's tournament, the league's regular season champion and No. 1 seed meets the No. 9 seed in an opening round matchup on Friday. The winner draws an automatic bye to the tournament semifinals. The other opening round game features the No. 7 and No. 8 seeds who play to meet the No. 2 seed in a quarterfinal game on Saturday.

In years past, the six through nine seeds played "play-in" games in order to reach the quarterfinals.

"This format should enhance both the overall attendance at the tournament, as well as its television exposure," Commissioner John Swofford said. "With three of our teams making the final eight of last season's NCAA Tournament, and five of our teams finishing the regular season in the Top 15 in the nation, the quality of ACC women's basketball is at an all-time high."

The championship game of the ACC Tournament moves to Monday evening after four years of being played on Sunday afternoon. From 1986 to 1994 the title game was held on Monday, while from 1978 to 1985 the champion was crowned on either Saturday or Sunday.

History and Honors

Maryland's International Stars - Jasmina Perazic (Yugoslavia), Chris Weller (coach-USA), Kris Kirchner (USA), Tara Heiss (USA), Vicky Bullett (USA)

GREAT TEAMS AND GREAT MOMENTS

Great Moments and Great Teams define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins has been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach.

The Weller Era has been marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

1975-76

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State up-ends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll to mark the highest poll finish in Maryland history.

1982-83

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final Associated Press poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

1985-86

Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Deanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and ultimately finishes No. 21 by the Associated Press after an opening round loss to Ohio State.

1986-87

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

1987-88

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Deanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence. Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

1988-89

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.

1989-90

Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. The Cavaliers return the favor against Maryland, downing the Terps 75-74 and sending UM to a .500 record the rest of the season. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.

1992-93

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

Maryland wins five straight at mid-season, but drops four heading into the ACC Tournament. The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland still takes its lumps during an 11-18 season. The Terps down William & Mary and Butler to lay claim to its own Dial Soap Classic in December. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terrapins finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins manage an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

COACHING HISTORY

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 - 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

447-221, .669 - 23 Years (1975-Present)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball. She has guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams have enjoyed national rankings in 14 seasons and she has engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She has been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

University of MARYLAND

"There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland."

As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the 1998 U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 13th in the nation, the School of Public Affairs was ranked 27th, and also was named one of the country's 25 best business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine. And, the university's School of Music was ranked 30th in the country in the first U.S. News and World Report reputational survey of arts programs since 1994.

The reputation of the School of Music promises to grow when the Maryland Center for the Performing Arts opens in 2000. With a 1,200-seat concert hall, a 300-seat recital hall, a 650-seat proscenium theater, a 200-seat dance studio and a 200-seat experimental theater with state-of-the-art lighting, acoustics and theatrical design elements, it will be an ideal home for university-based performing arts programs.

For exceptional students seeking an exceptional education at the University of Maryland, College Park, there are a number of programs designed to enrich the learning experience. Among them are the Honors Program, ranked among the nine best in the country by Ivy League Programs at State School Prices; College Park Scholars, which encourages students who share common intellectual interests to live and study together in 10 specialty areas; and the Gemstone Program, which links student teams from engineering, the humanities, business and the physical sciences in a four-year research project.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

The University of Maryland, College Park, as the flagship campus of the state higher education system, is a vital part of Maryland's current prosperity and its vision for the future. For students here, the state offers a bounteous extension of the campus own wealth of opportunity.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide. The Kennedy Center alone houses the National Symphony Orchestra, five performance stages, an opera company, and the American Film Institute. In Baltimore, one of the great ports of the world, the Inner Harbor has become a cultural magnet for thousands of tourists each year, offering the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and other attractions.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

Excellence In Education

History

The University of Maryland was founded in 1807 in Baltimore as a faculty-owned College of Medicine. The medical school was considered one of the top schools in the country, attracting notable professors and lecturers from throughout the world. In its beginning, tuition cost $140, grades were sent home weekly to parents, and students could obtain room and board for $300 annually.

Five years later, the growing institution was renamed the University of Maryland. Despite the name, the university was not considered a state institution as it was still owned and operated by the faculty. Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, the first dental school in America, became part of the university in 1840, awarding the first Doctor of Dental Surgery (D.D.S) degree in 1841.

In 1859, the Maryland Agricultural College, which would evolve into the University of Maryland, College Park, was opened under a charter secured by a group of Maryland planters in 1856. In addition to spending one hour each day hoeing or plowing on the college farm, students took a broad range of courses in ancient and modern languages, natural sciences, English and mathematics. After a disastrous fire on campus in 1912, the state acquired the college and rebuilt it.

In 1920, the state legislature combined the College Park institution with the professional schools in Baltimore to form an expanded University of Maryland. The entity eventually grew to include campuses in Baltimore County, on the Eastern Shore and the worldwide University College, a continuing education institution.

The following decades saw an increasing growth of the student population, excellence in programs and curricula and the burgeoning of the University of Maryland, College Park, into a nationally recognized research institution.

July 1, 1988, marked the dawn of a new era in higher education in the state of Maryland, as the five components of the university were merged with six other state universities and colleges to form the University System of Maryland, and College Park secured its flagship status with a mandate to become one of the pre-eminent research universities in the nation.

University Traditions

Testudo is a Diamondback turtle. Like some other famous personages born into the Depression of the 1930s, the derivation of his name is cloudy. But it is likely that his moniker is derived from the scientific classification for turtle (testudines). Or the top turtle could be named after testudo gigantia, a species native to the African nation of Seychelles and one of its remote islands, Aldabra. Or the name could have come from a dictionary definition that says the word, testudo, was derived from Latin and meant a shelter held over the head of Roman soldiers — like a tortoise shell.

These explanations are a long way from the Chesapeake Bay where the Diamondback lives. When Testudo had his coming out on May 23, 1933, he was thrown into a world filled with intimidating mascots — Wildcats, Tigers, Devils, Wolves, Bears — thought up over a half-century of intercollegiate competition. The University of Maryland, College Park was consolidated from different state schools in 1920 to form the base of today's wide-ranging state system, and the remodeled Maryland needed a flag carrier to do battle with Wahoos, Lions and Generals.

Dr. H.C. Byrd, a football coach who later became university president, recommended the Diamondback as mascot in 1932 in response to the student newspaper's search for an "official" leader. Byrd's childhood in Crisfield, Md., apparently included skirmishes with this brand of snapping turtle, indigenous to the Bay. The school paper was in fact already called The Diamondback, and when the Class of 1933 stepped forward with the idea of giving the University a permanent bronzed version as its graduation gift, Testudo's family was in to stay.

Maryland had been referring to itself as Old Liners, yet another name whose derivation no one seems sure of. Historians are in a scrimmage over whether the nickname is a reference to a Revolutionary War Troop of Maryland soldiers who distinguished themselves on the field of battle, or they feel it could refer to a squabble with Pennsylvanians over just where the border between the two states should be.

The Class of '33 raised money for casting a Diamondback by holding its Senior Prom on campus to save money on expenses. The yearbook and Student Government Association chipped in. Edwin C. Mayo, Class of '04 and a former quarterback, donated at cost the 300 pound bronzed beauty. As president of Gorham Manufacturing in Providence, R.I., Robert J. Hill cast the inspired sculpture accomplished by company artist Aristide Cianfrani. Further turtleization came when the student yearbook, The Reveille, became The Terrapin in 1935. Newspapers, even then exploring every angle, shortened Terrapin to Terp for headline writing ease when it wasn't trying to cram Old Liner into a single column head. The name was in place; now came the stuff of legend.

PRESIDENT C. D. MOTE JR.

C.D. (Dan) Mote Jr. started his tenure as president of the University of Maryland, College Park, with the same three-word slogan that has guided his entire academic career: "Quality, Quality, Quality."

From his first day in office, Sept. 1, 1998, Mote has shaped his agenda around the achievement of high quality in every aspect of university activity, from students to sports, and from research to community involvement. Fortunately, Maryland was already well on its way.

"Maryland is a university on the move," Mote said. "That's why I am so excited by this position after spending almost my entire academic career at Berkeley. We have a goal to achieve a place among the 10 highest quality universities in America, and I know in my bones that is an achievable goal."

Achieving quality has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California at Berkeley, where he earned all of his degrees, through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley. He arrived in College Park determined to continue the same level of achievement in his new post.

After earning his doctorate in Engineering Mechanics from Berkeley in 1963, Mote spent a year as a research fellow at the University of Birmingham in England, then three years as assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh before returning to Berkeley in 1967.

There he stayed for more than 30 years before coming to Maryland. He earned tenure in 1969 in the Mechanical Engineering Department, and was promoted to Professor in 1973.

Mote served two terms as vice chair of Mechanical Engineering and served as chair from 1987 to 1991. At that time, he was appointed to the FANUC Chair in Mechanical Systems in addition to being named vice chancellor for University Relations, the post he held until accepting the presidency at Maryland in 1998.

Mote has participated with distinction in every phase of the academic enterprise, including classroom teaching, working with students, basic research, applied research and service to the university and the community.

Much respected by his students, Mote earned the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award and the 1975 Pi Tau Sigma Excellence in Teaching Award for the University of California. He has supervised more than 50 doctoral students, including several who are still in progress, and more than 60 master's theses. He continued teaching and supervising graduate students even during his administrative assignments, and several of his graduate students from Berkeley commute to Maryland to meet with him as they finish their projects. Mote has stated his intention to teach and work with graduate students at Maryland as well.

Mote's research activities have focused on dynamic systems, instrumentation, vibration and biomechanics. He has achieved international recognition for his work on gyroscopic systems, including high-speed translating and rotating systems such as circular and band saws, computer memory disks and tapes. He also has researched the biomechanics of ski injuries and developed safer ski bindings as a result. His research has resulted in more than 300 scholarly publications as well as patents in the United States, Norway, Finland and Sweden.

A registered professional engineer in California, Mote has served in numerous capacities for professional societies, including the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), and is co-editor of its biannual research series, "Skiing Trauma and Safety."

Mote's work has been supported continuously since 1962 by the National Science Foundation, and he also has received research fellowships from the Royal Norwegian Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. The American Society of Mechanical Engineers International elected him to honorary membership in 1975, and he has been elected as well to fellow grade in the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Engineering in 1988, and in that same year was awarded the Humboldt Prize by the Federal Republic of Germany. In 1991, the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science awarded him a fellowship.

In 1992, he conceived, designed and implemented a $1.1 billion comprehensive capital campaign, which had achieved more than $800 million at the time he left Berkeley.

Shortly after he arrived at Maryland, this university's ongoing capital campaign passed the halfway point more than four months ahead of schedule, but Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not about raising money.

"It's about building relationships, with alumni, with business and government, with students and parents. We build those relationships by connecting the alumni and friends of the university with the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as naturally as water flowing downhill."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children.

Maryland TERRAPINS

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

This is Maryland Athletics

At the University of Maryland, winning is not taken lightly. Like the rich history of all its sports programs, championships are a tradition.

Since the 1950s, Maryland has established itself as one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation. This type of success is no accident; it has been built year-by-year on the achievements of outstanding young men and women who were given the opportunity to excel both on and off the field of play. The victories, the championships and the national acclaim are all ingredients of the Maryland athletic program. Student-athletes who attend Maryland are part of a program and a university which thrive on tradition and excellence.

Academic Excellence

The University of Maryland considers intercollegiate athletics an integral part of the collegiate experience. Its existence provides an opportunity for students, faculty, alumni and students to share in the life of intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to achieve the same standards of excellence in its athletic program as exist within the university's teaching, research and public service programs. The department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student, possessing academic abilities, personal interests and ambitions comparable to those of the other members of the student body. Since 1983, 88 percent of freshmen scholarship athletes who completed their eligibility at the University of Maryland earned their degrees.

Goals

The great thing about being a Terrapin is the commitment to hard work and dedication. At the University of Maryland, the athletic department is dedicated to supporting a well-balanced Division I program. Athletic director Deborah A. Yow and her dedicated coaches, administrators and staff have re-engineered the department into a responsive and financially sound model — with a clear vision and a determined drive toward national prominence.

Athletic Success

National championships, conference championships, national rankings and postseason play are all a part of the University of Maryland experience. The University of Maryland has established itself as one of the nation's elite athletic programs. The Terrapins have won 13 national championships, including a record four consecutive by the women's lacrosse team. The Terrapins had plenty of reason to celebrate when it came to intercollegiate athletics in 1997-98, as they posted their highest finish ever (No. 19) in the national Sears Directors' Cup all-sports ranking. Its 38-position jump from the No. 57 spot in 1994-95 is the greatest in that time by a school not previously ranked in the top 25.

Competition

Wearing the Maryland uniform means playing in front of some of the loudest and most supportive fans in the nation. It means playing against the best teams in the country, in the most prestigious conference in the country, the ACC. It means wearing the school colors with pride. It means doing your best in athletics and academics. It is a unique and special feeling being a Terrapin.

Athletes in the Community

From the media spotlight to the community spotlight, Terrapin student-athletes strengthen the ties of the local community by serving as role models. Community service is a key part of the Terrapins' agenda. Student-athletes support many community programs which help to enrich the lives of Maryland youth while teaching the importance of studying hard and saying "no" to drugs and alcohol. Representatives from the University of Maryland athletic department speak to participants and use their image and the appeal of sports to encourage Maryland children to stay in school, improve their reading and writing skills, and to receive their high school diplomas.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DEBORAH A. YOW

The University of Maryland athletic department has made remarkable progress under the leadership of Deborah A. Yow over the past four years. Budgets are now balanced and the inherited operating debt of almost $7 million has been paid in full. There is a spirit of excitement and pride at Maryland and the department has a clear vision for its future.

In her inspiring first meeting with the staff, shortly after she was named A.D. in the summer of 1994, she challenged the Terrapin athletic department to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools...to work hard and work smart...to recognize that our only limitations are those which we place upon ourselves."

Yow Elected 2nd VP of NACDA

Deborah A. Yow was elected second vice president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics this past June and is scheduled to assume the organization's presidency in July 2000. Her term as second vice-president began July 1. Now in its 33rd year, NACDA serves as the professional and educational association for more than 5,100 college athletic directors, associates, assistants and conference commissioners at more than 1,600 institutions throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico. Yow is the second woman to serve as an officer of NACDA (Barbara Hedges, athletic director at the University of Washington, held office from 1994-97).

Yow has rallied the department toward the achievement of five strategic goals:

1) Generate significantly higher revenues with increased corporate sponsorships, aggressive marketing and more effective fund-raising;

2) Boost the graduation rate of Terrapin athletes to a level equal to the general student body;

3) Raise the level of competitive achievement nationally and in the Atlantic Coast Conference, while carefully complying with ACC and NCAA rules;

4) Develop a streamlined, highly efficient athletics organization;

5) Provide outstanding customer service.

In achieving most of these goals over her first four years as athletic director, Yow and her dedicated coaches, administrators and staff have re-engineered the department from a debt-ridden, under-achieving organization to a responsive and financially sound model — with a clear vision and a determined drive toward national prominence. Maryland now ranks in the top 10 percent of all NCAA Division I programs competitively across all sports, is competing effectively in the ACC, and set an enviable record of 154 All-ACC academic honor roll student-athletes. Corporate sponsorship revenues are up 265 percent and annual fund-raising for scholarships has increased 60 percent. Maryland is a remarkably improved athletic program.

In 1997, Yow formed the employee "Committee on Quality in the Workplace" to recommend initiatives to improve working conditions and to design programs to recognize the value of athletic department employees. This has proved to be a wonderful tool in recognizing the worth of the university's outstanding employees across the department. There is a compelling sense that the Terrapin athletic department is a family, with a common goal and a shared purpose.

Maryland's athletic director recently observed, "We have the finest coaches, support staff, and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work, and cooperation that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all our successes...and the basis for our bright future."

Regarding the many achievements of the Terrapin athletic program, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied...our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently...we see no reason to settle for less." Yow, who is a member of the NCAA Management Council and other prestigious national groups, is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and expects maximum effort from herself and those around her. Her words set the tone for everyone in athletics: "Winning isn't everything, but the will to win is." She points out that this applies in the classroom, on the field of competition, and in life.

A former basketball coach, Yow was the first male or female at the Division I level to lead three schools (Kentucky, Oral Roberts, Florida) to their first-ever appearances in the national Top 25. Her previous significant administrative experience came at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro and as a pioneer female athletic director at Saint Louis University (1990-94).

The Maryland athletic department staff is working as a focused, talented and determined team under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Deborah A. Yow and is realizing steady and remarkable progress across all areas, with the best yet to come.

With a clear vision and with high aspirations for Maryland athletics, the Terps prepare to enter the new century on a dramatic upward thrust. The athletics staff embraces this prospect, with gratitude for its successes and with renewed determination to further enhance the program's national stature. It has the skill and determined leadership to reach its lofty goals, as a part of this great university. And it will.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Danita D. Nias

Senior Assoc. A.D.

Danita D. Nias, whose involvement in University of Maryland athletics goes back to her days as a cheerleader in the late 1970s and early 1980s, is in her fourth year as an athletic administrator and her third as the department's senior associate director of athletics. Nias assists the athletic director in the overall administration of the department, including performance management, staff development, and outcome assessment. She oversees the supervision of 13 varsity sports, supervises the personnel, marketing and media relations units, and directs a department-wide Continuous Quality Improvement program. She also assists in the solicitation of gifts for the capital campaign, coordinating her efforts through the athletic advancement office.

She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland's College of Business and Management with a concentration in personnel and labor relations and her master's in 1998 from Syracuse.

Prior to her appointment at Maryland in June of 1995, she spent 11 years at Learning International, formerly based in Stamford, Conn., where she was a senior executive responsible for designing, implementing and selling to America's leading corporations training systems to improve organizational performance.

She and her husband Michael reside in Silver Spring.

Joe Hull

Assoc. A.D./External Relations

Joe Hull joined the University of Maryland athletic staff as associate athletic director for external relations in December 1997 following 12 years in various athletic fund-raising, ticketing and marketing capacities at North Carolina State University.

At Maryland, Hull oversees all fund-raising efforts for the Terrapins' athletic program, including the Terrapin Club, M Club and major gift fund-raising office. Prior to his arrival in College Park, he was associate director of the NC State Student Aid Association (Wolfpack Club), which raises nearly $6 million annually for athletic scholarships from its more than 11,000 members/contributors. The Wolfpack Club also was responsible for raising more than $50 million for the construction of a 20,000-seat sports arena. In addition to his annual fund and capital campaign experience, Hull has extensive experience in endowment gifts, planned gifts, donor seating, advertising sales, publications and special events.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in business management from North Carolina State University in 1978, a law degree from Campbell University in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1985.

His wife, JoAnn, formerly served as an assistant attorney general for the state of North Carolina. They have two children, Josie (7) and Josiah (4).

Rob Mullens

Acting Assoc. A.D./Administration

Rob Mullens, who joined the Terps' staff as assistant athletic director for business in the summer of 1996, was elevated to acting associate athletic director for administration this past May. In his expanded role, he supervises nine intercollegiate sports (baseball, wrestling, golf, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track) in addition to overseeing business, ticket, and facility operations, the strength and conditioning program, and the training room.

Mullens graduated cum laude in 1991 from West Virginia with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in sport management at WVU in 1993. Prior to his appointment at Maryland, he was senior business manager and the chief budget officer for the University of Miami (Fla.) athletic department (1994-96).

His background in athletics includes serving as an intern for the senior associate director of athletics at Kentucky (1993) and as a graduate assistant to the assistant athletic director for business at West Virginia (1992-93). Prior to pursuing a career in athletics, Mullens worked for the accounting firm Ernst and Young.

He is married to the former Jane Pearson, who is the Terrapins' assistant athletic director for compliance.

Patricia Nicol

Asst. A.D./Senior Women's Admin.

Patricia Nicol, the department's senior women's administrator, is in her third year as an assistant athletic director at the University of Maryland. She came to College Park following a six-year stint as associate athletic director and senior women's administrator at Providence College.

At Maryland, Nicol oversees the administration of 13 varsity sports, including nationally ranked programs for women's lacrosse, women's soccer, volleyball, field hockey, men's lacrosse and men's soccer. In addition, she supervises the nationally recognized women's basketball, gymnastics and softball teams, as well as the men's and women's tennis teams and men's and women's swimming programs. Her duties at Maryland have included serving as tournament director for all NCAA Championship events hosted by the Terps in 1997-98 and serving as the department's acting compliance officer for one year.

Nicol earned bachelor's (1980) and master's (1983) degrees from the University of Rhode Island, where she was an NCAA qualifier in the sport of track and field. She was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1990. She served as head cross country and track coach at West Virginia University from 1983-84.

A native of Providence, R.I., she has two children, Christine (14) and Michael (12).

Curt Callahan

Asst. A.D./Operations & Facilities

Curt Callahan, a veteran member of the Terrapins' athletic staff, is in his 10th season overseeing Maryland's athletic operations and facilities and his 20th as an assistant wrestling coach. He was named the department's facilities coordinator in 1989 and was elevated to assistant athletic director in 1997.

As the key contact person on operations and facilities, Callahan manages the department's vast athletic complex, including Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House. In recent years, he played an instrumental role in three major building projects: the upper deck addition to Byrd Stadium, the construction of the Gossett Football Team House, and the completion of the James H. Kehoe Track and Field Facility and Ludwig Soccer Field. His game management responsibilities have included overseeing the last six NCAA lacrosse tournaments held in College Park.

His tenure at the university dates to his undergraduate days as a wrestler in the late 1960s, when he played an integral role in the Terps winning four consecutive ACC wrestling championships. Callahan himself was a two-time conference champion, winning individual titles in 1969 and '70. He was 22-1 as a junior, his only loss coming to NCAA and eventual Olympic champion Dan Gable of Iowa. Callahan was a two-time qualifier to the U.S. Olympic Trials, reaching the finals in 1972 and '76. In both years, he finished fourth nationally in Greco-Roman at 149.5 pounds.

Callahan is married to Sandy.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Demetrius Marlowe

Asst. A.D./Academic Support & Career Development

Demetrius Marlowe is in his second year as assistant athletic director for academic support and career development. Marlowe oversees and directs the academic support unit for all student-athletes, and is developing career development initiatives for all of Maryland's student-athletes as part of a comprehensive life-skills program.

Marlowe came to Maryland from Syracuse University, where he served as the academic coordinator for football for three years. At Syracuse, he was responsible for all academic support services for the football program. His duties included the development, implementation and evaluation of pre-season orientations, study tables and tutorial services, the development and monitoring of continuing eligibility, and academic progress toward degree processes. In addition, his contribution to Syracuse University led to one of the country's first NCAA/CHAMPS Life Skills programs for student-athletes. He also worked as an academic counselor at the University of Notre Dame.

Marlowe has worked in an environment which sustained a student-athlete graduation rate of 85 percent, and he has been described as one of the "most innovative leaders in forwarding the mission of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes."

He and his wife, Alison, have three children: Janay Miller (11), Shay (13) and Samuel (2).

Dave Haglund

Asst. A.D./Media Relations

Dave Haglund joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University. At Maryland he serves as the administrative head of the Terrapins' media relations unit, overseeing the development and implementation of initiatives to provide publicity for the university's 24 varsity sports and more than 600 student-athletes.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1996. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' nationally ranked Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. Fresno State led the nation in attendance in baseball, soccer and softball and was among the West Coast leaders in attendance in men's basketball during his time at the central California school. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (5) and Matthew (2).

Jane Mullens

Asst. A.D./Compliance & Certification

Jane Mullens was named assistant athletic director for compliance and certification this past May after spending the previous two years as the department's compliance coordinator. She serves as the department's senior level manager in NCAA compliance and certification matters related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

Mullens earned a bachelor's degree from Western Washington University in 1992 and a master's in sport management from University of Miami (Fla.) in 1994. She was an assistant in the compliance office at Miami in 1995 before being promoted to compliance coordinator in January 1996. As compliance coordinator for the Hurricanes, she was responsible for creating and implementing a rules-education program and creating and monitoring documentation related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education. She was named to a similar position at the University of Maryland in July 1996. She began her career in athletic compliance as an intern at Miami in 1994.

She is married to Rob Mullens, Maryland's acting associate athletic director.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland considers intercollegiate athletics an integral part of the collegiate experience. Its existence provides an opportunity for students, faculty, alumni and students to share in the life of intercollegiate athletics.

Don Pearman, Basketball Advisor

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to achieve the same standards of excellence in its athletics program as exist within the university's teaching, research and public service programs. The department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student, possessing academic abilities, personal interests and ambitions comparable to those of the other members of the student body.

The mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit, headed by assistant athletic director Demetrius Marlowe, is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance the academic progress, facilitate the career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of every student-athlete.

MAPS Directory

This directory, produced annually by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin their professional careers. Distributed to more than 1,000 corporations and businesses around the region, prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with a photograph and resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements.

Terp Choices

Terp Choices is a program designed to guide student-athletes by orienting, supporting and increasing awareness of the relevant issues pertaining to student-athletes in today's world. The focus of the program is making personal choices and how they may affect an entire team, not just a single individual. Education and interactive workshops are presented to the athletic team and are led by student educators.

Michelle Miller at work in the Academic Support & Career Development unit.

Career Information Fairs

Career Awareness in Academic Support is expanding to include a variety of programs which will be offered for student-athletes throughout the semester. Career awareness will be an ongoing process and will include assistance with resume writing and interview skills. The end of the semester will bring a career awareness fair which will host a number of professionals with whom student-athletes can learn about career interests and planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen area of interest.

Team Maryland

Team Maryland is a class taught in conjunction with the campus' Center for Political Leadership in which student-athletes are exposed to leadership and public speaking skills and techniques. The program consists of a group of volunteer student-athletes who learn about the challenges for children in the community by speaking to different elementary schools about drug abuse and the importance of education.

In conjunction with the campus' Center for Political Leadership, participants are taught leadership skills and public speaking techniques to use in their school-based presentations. In addition to school visits, Team Maryland has hosted visits from local schools to our campus.

MEDICAL STAFF

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's sports medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Orthopedic surgeon Leigh Ann Curl, M.D., serves as the head team physician and Tom Terrell, M.D., provides primary care services. Both Drs. Curl and Terrell are part of the growing University Sports Medicine program of the University of Maryland Medical Center, which also provides medical care for the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL, UMBC, Coppin State University and 14 high schools.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. Drs. Curl and Terrell are excellent physicians who understand college athletics. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools, like North Carolina, Virginia, Duke and Wake Forest."

Leigh Ann Curl, M.D.

Head Team Physician

Leigh Ann Curl

Leigh Ann Curl, a former All-American basketball player at the University of Connecticut and a 1998 inductee into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, is beginning her second year as Maryland's head team physician.

Dr. Curl, who is a member of the University of Maryland School of Medicine faculty as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery, has performed volunteer work as team physician for USA Basketball, USA Rugby, Johns Hopkins University, St. John's University, the New York Mets and the New York City public schools recreation program.

She received her medical degree in 1989 from Johns Hopkins, where she served her internship and residency. She was a fellow in sports medicine and shoulder surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery at Cornell University Medical Center in New York City.

Dr. Curl graduated summa cum laude from the University of Connecticut in 1985 and was her class valedictorian. She was a four-year starter on the women's basketball team, serving two years as team captain, and became the third women's basketball player in school history to score 1,000 points. She currently ranks 10th in career points and fifth in rebounds at UConn. A two-time GTE Academic All-America, Curl also was a two-time Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Tom Terrell, M/D.

Primary Care Doctor

Tom Terrell

Tom Terrell, an Academic All-American basketball player at Jacksonville University in 1986, is beginning his second season as the primary care sports medicine doctor for Maryland's athletic program.

A member of the University of Maryland School of Medicine faculty as a clinical assistant professor of family medicine, Terrell was in private practice in Atlanta prior to joining the Terps' medical staff. He received his M.D. from Emory University Medical School in Atlanta and a Master of Philosophy in biological anthropology from the University of Cambridge in England. He was a fellow at Michigan State University in primary care sports medicine and a medical officer for the 1996 Olympics.

A former collegiate athlete, Terrell was an Academic All-American at Jacksonville University in 1986 when the Dolphins advanced to the NCAA Tournament. He also was selected the Sun Belt Conference Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was awarded an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

Basketball Training Staff

Sandy Worth

Head Trainer

Sandy Worth

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of five full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992. During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Michael Meyers

Assistant Trainer

Michael Meyers

Michael Meyers is in his second year on the athletic training staff at the University of Maryland. He works directly with the football and women's basketball programs. Meyers came to College Park from Morgan State University, where he was a member of the training staff for two years. A native of Woodbridge, Va., Meyers began his career in athletic training at Norfolk State University. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Old Dominion and his master's degree in health care administration from the University of Maryland, University College.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

In the highly competitive collegiate football world of the '90s, the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division 1 program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

Dwight Galt

Barry Kagan

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the United States. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Maryland football players train with some of the best equipment available, including 20,000 pounds of customized York free weights, seven pieces of Keiser progressive air resistance machines, and a full line of Hammer strength equipment. The weight complex also features immense, self-contained power rack stations, Olympic lifting platforms with Eleiko bumper plates, and 10 upper body pressing stations.

A meaningful goal of every Terrapin football player is achievement of the prestigious "Iron Terp" award, which is recognized twice year to those team members who achieve extremely challenging strength goals, based on body weight. It is a great honor and matter of pride to earn an "Iron Terp" award, and the Terps must "train to win" to accomplish this!

TERRAPIN CLUB

What is the Terrapin Club?

As the scholarship fund-raising arm of the athletic department, the Terrapin Club is composed of approximately 4,500 members who contribute money annually to help pay the scholarship costs of our student-athletes. For many student-athletes, scholarships are the only means available to continue their education; for others, scholarships provide the opportunity to compete at the highest level of athletic competition in America's premier conference, the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Lance Billingsley
Terrapin Club Pres.

With nearly 600 student-athletes, 400 of whom benefit from scholarship support, the scholarship bill for the coming year is approximately $4.5 million. For the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1998, the Terrapin Club contributed approximately $2.8 million toward scholarships.

How Much Should I Contribute?

As a Terrapin Club member, you can contribute the minimum of $125 or any higher amount. Your benefits of membership, however, do vary depending on your level and amount of contribution. The Terrapin Club is composed of seven levels of membership, ranging from the Top Terp level, where members contribute at least $10,000 per year, to the Silver level, where members contribute $125 per year.

What Benefits Do I Receive for Being a Member?

Members of the Terrapin Club directly assist the university in providing athletic scholarships. In addition, benefits of membership include priority seating for football and basketball, preferred parking, a monthly newsletter, and invitations to receptions and Terrapin Club events. Furthermore, you must be a member of the Terrapin Club to purchase men's basketball season tickets.

What Methods of Contributing are Available?

Direct gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa or Mastercard). As a donor, you have the option of contributing once annually or periodically throughout the year. Also, you can now make your contribution via electronic bankdraft, where your account will be debited a set amount on the 10th of each month.

The University of Maryland Foundation (the depository for scholarship money) qualifies for most charitable matching gift programs. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

Is My Donation Tax Deductible?

Since your gift to the Terrapin Club provides you the right to purchase preferred seating for football and/or basketball, 80 percent of the total amount of your gift is tax deductible as a charitable contribution for income tax purposes, according to Internal Revenue Service code, Section 170(m).

How is My Seat Location Determined?

Ticket assignments for football and basketball and all special events (the ACC Tournament, bowl games, etc.) are based on a point system designed to reward loyalty and total dollar contributions. Terpoints also are awarded for consecutive years of participation and referrals of new members.

Still Have Questions?

MAJOR GIFT FUNDRAISING

Maryland Educational Foundation

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the University of Maryland athletic department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, you are ensuring that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow.

For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of funding each of the university's intercollegiate teams at the maximum number of scholarships allowed by the NCAA.

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a dynamic investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact Greg Manning, executive director of the MEF, at (301) 314-7020 if you would like more information.

Major Gifts

The continued excellence of the University of Maryland athletics program will be greatly enhanced by the support it receives through private gifts beyond the annual Terrapin Club contributions. Cash gifts for the improvement of capital projects truly distinguishes any great institution's athletic program, thus gurauranteeing a future as rich as its past. A gift of cash is the most critical type of donation to the Major Gifts Development Unit. Our goal this year is to raise $1.5 million in cash to enhance our facilities. Quality athletic facilities attract top-notch student-athletes to our university, and they attract alumni and friends back to campus to enjoy Maryland Terrapins intercollegiate athletic competition.

The primary focus of the Major Gifts program is to refurbish existing facilities and build new ones. We currently have several excellent naming opportunities available. If you have an interest in a naming opportunity, or in making a major gift in support of Maryland athletics, please call Greg Manning, Cheryl Harrison or Andrew Plenn at (301) 314-7020. They will be delighted to show you how both the donor and Terrapin athletics can benefit from a major gift to the University of Maryland.

The M Club

David Diehl

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest letterwinner clubs in the country, with a membership of more than 4,000 former Maryland varsity athletes.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for the 24 varsity teams; to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community; to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships; and to cultivate social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Your membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts, and will enable you to receive the monthly athletic department publication (Terp Talk) for information about current teams and news about your former teammates.

In addition, you will receive information about and discounts for various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

Maryland letterwinners interested in joining the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. It stands today as a building that faces cosmetic renewal over the next several years, but Cole's charisma will not be tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and there is not a better place to watch a game today. Only in a building like Cole, where history has been routinely made, can the fan feel the echo of tradition and experience the electricity generated by buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there have been refinements. Scoreboards were installed that not only tell the fan what the score is, but also how loud they are cheering. A new floor design reflects a modern era of basketball. Cole's seating also grew from its original base, and now 14,500 fans can cheer for the red and white at any game.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held here. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held here in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place here in 1990.

Cole Field House is home to most of the athletic department offices, and yearly hosts thousands who visit just to see where so much basketball history has been made.

SOME PLACE SPECIAL

Annapolis ... Baltimore ... Washington, D.C.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland. It's all here beyond the campus.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a new station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttles serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

The United States Capitol

Oriole Park at Camden Yards

The Maryland Capital in Annapolis

Baltimore is just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland. Its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its national aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant, holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports. The heart of Maryland, the Chesapeake Bay, is 20 miles from campus, and the state capital, Annapolis, is 30 miles away.

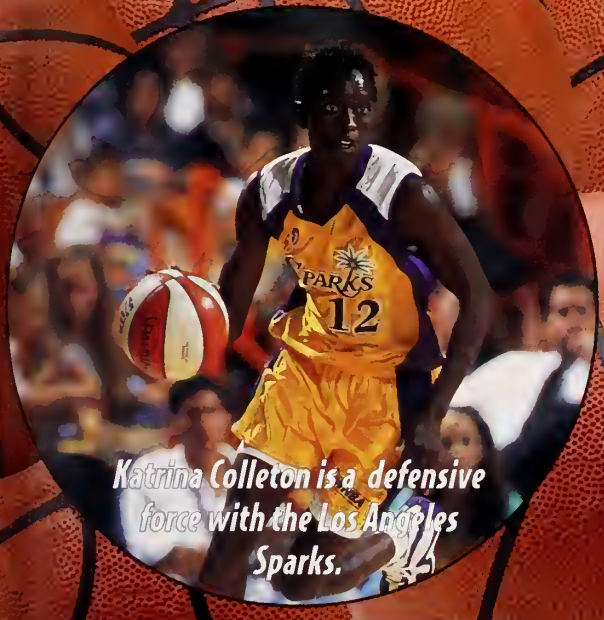
Campus neighbors include such important national resources as the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institutions, the National Institutes of Health, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Center.

Washington and Baltimore can be reached easily from anywhere in the world. USAir, which is headquartered in the metropolitan area, uses Baltimore/Washington International Airport as its hub. Dulles International Airport is a hub for United Airlines. College Park is 10 minutes from the Amtrak Northeast Corridor Line and frequent train service along the East Coast.

Maryland Women's Basketball: A Program of Distinction

Maryland offers more than 110 majors in 10 colleges and schools.

Vicky Bullett, of the Charlotte Sting, is one of the WNBA's top scorers.



Katrina Colleton is a defensive force with the Los Angeles Sparks.

Maryland has a student-to-teacher ratio of 15-to-1.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards is a jewel in downtown Baltimore.

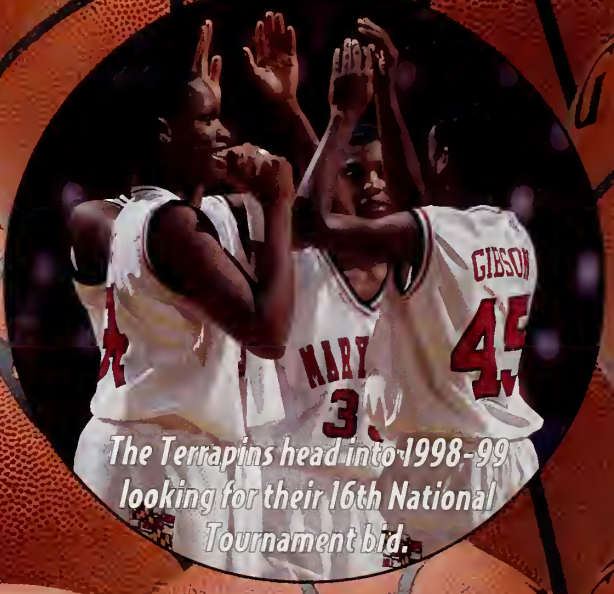
Jessie Hicks has been a strong low-post player with the Utah Starzz.

Maryland Women's Basketball: A Program of Distinction

Chris Weller has guided the Terps to three Final Fours and 15 national tournaments.

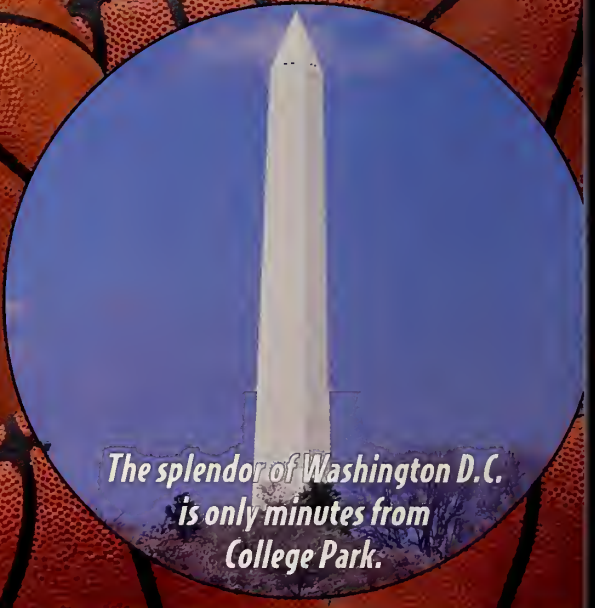
Maryland ranks in the Top 10 percent of all schools in the nation academically.

Baltimore's beautiful Inner Harbor is just 20 miles from College Park.



The Terrapins head into 1998-99 looking for their 16th National Tournament bid.

Two-time U.S. Olympian Vicky Bullett is one of five Olympians from Maryland.



The splendor of Washington D.C. is only minutes from College Park.
